7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, ^e then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And ^f when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their ^g idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the ^h house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 ¶ And when all ⁱ Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 ¶ So Saul died for his transgression which he [†] committed against the LORD, ^k even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, ^l to enquire of it;

14 And enquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of [†] Jesse.

CHAP. XI.

1 David by a general consent is made king at Hebron: 4 he winneth the castle of Zion from the Jebusites by Joab's valour. 10 A catalogue of David's mighty men.

THEN ^a all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, ^b we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And moreover [†] in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt ^{||} feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; ^c and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD [†] by ^d Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all Israel ^e went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, ^f Thou shalt not come hither. ^g Nevertheless, David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be [†] chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it ^{||} The city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab [†] repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David [†] waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 ¶ ^h These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who ^{||} strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, ^{||} an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: ⁱ he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty.

13 He was with David at ^{||} Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the ^h people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they ^{||} set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great ^{||} deliverance.

15 ¶ Now ^{||} three of the thirty captains ⁱ went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 ^m And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, ⁿ and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, ^o but poured it out to the LORD.

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men [†] that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

20 ¶ And ^p Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 ^q Of the three he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, [†] who had done many acts; he ^r slew two lion-like men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, [†] a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, ^r and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three ^u mighty.

CHAP. XII.

1 The companies that came to David at Ziklag.

23 The armies that came to him at Hebron.

NOW a these are they that came to David to b Ziklag, ¶ while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and c the left in hurling stones, and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of ¶ Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antiothite,

4 And Ismaiah the d Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabad the e Gederathite,

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joerzer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroram of f Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the g hold to the wilderness men of might, and men ¶ of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces h were like the faces of lions, and were ¶ as swift as the roes upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 i These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: ¶ one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had ¶ overflowed all his k banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out ¶ to meet them, and answered and said unto them, l If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall ¶ be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no ¶ wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, m and rebuke it.

18 Then ¶ the spirit came upon Amasai, n who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine o helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, p He will fall to his master Saul, ¶ to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to q Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David ¶ against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host 22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 ¶ And these are the numbers of the ¶ bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, r to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready ¶ armed to the war.

28 And ^a Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the [†] kindred of Saul, three thousand : for hitherto [†] the ^y greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, [†] famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, ^a which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do ; the heads of them were two hundred ; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, || expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could || keep rank : they were [†] not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, || expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And ^b on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel : and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, ^c eating and drinking : for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and || meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly : ^d for there was joy in Israel.

CHAP. XIII.

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim. 9 Uzza being smitten, the ark is left at the house of Obed-edom.

AND David ^a consulted with the captains of thousands, and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, [†] let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are [†] in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us :

3 And let us [†] bring again the ark of our God to us : ^b for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so : for the thing ^c was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So ^a David gathered all Israel together, from ^a Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to ^f Baalah, that is, to ^g Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, ^h that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they [†] carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of ⁱ Abinadab : and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with [†] singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 ¶ And when they came unto ^k the threshing-floor of || Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark ; for the oxen || stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, ^l because he put his hand to the ark : and there he died ^m before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza : wherefore that place is called || Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me ?

13 So David [†] brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside ⁿ into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed ^o the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

NOW ^a Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, ^b for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in ^e the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David ^f enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to ^g Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place || Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their ^h gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet ⁱ again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, ^k and come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a ^l sound of going in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines ^m from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the ⁿ fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the ^o fear of him upon all nations.

CHAP. XV.

1 David having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom: 25 he performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy: 29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in ^a the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, † None ought to carry the ^b ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David ^c gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the ^d children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of ^e Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his || brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of ^f Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of ^g Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for ^h Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: ⁱ sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, ^k the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as ^l Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed ^m Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, ⁿ Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, ^o Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphele; and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, ^p the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on ^q Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphele, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel and Azaziah, with harps || on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, || was for † song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the priests, ^r did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark.

25 ¶ So ^s David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom ^t with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, ^u that they offered ^v seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the || song with the singers : David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus ^aall Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, ^band with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, ^cas the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window, saw king David dancing and playing : and she despised him in her heart.

CHAP. XVI.

1 David's festival sacrifice : 4 he ordereth a choir to sing thanksgiving. 7 The psalm of thanksgiving. 37 He appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

SO ^athey brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the ^btent that David had pitched for it : ^cand they offered burnt-sacrifices and peace-offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he ^dblessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to ^erecord, and to thank and praise ^fthe LORD God of Israel :

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom : and Jeiel [†]with psalteries and with harps ; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals ;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of ^gAsaph and his brethren.

8 ^hGive thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his ⁱdeeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his ^kwondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name : let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, ^lseek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth ;

13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, ^mhis chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God ; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye ⁿmindful always of his covenant ; the word which he commanded to a thousand generations ;

16 Even of the ^ocovenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac ;

17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, [†]the lot of your inheritance ;

19 When ye were but [†]few, ^peven a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people ;

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong : yea, he ^qreproved kings for their sakes, 22 Saying, ^rTouch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 ^sSing unto the LORD, all the earth ; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen ; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised : he also is to be feared above ^uall gods.

26 For all the gods ^wof the people are idols : but the LORD made the heavens.

27 ^xGlory and honour are in his presence ; strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD ^yglory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name : bring an offering, and come before him : worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth : the world also shall be stable ; that it be not moved.

31 Let the ^aheavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice : and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the ^bsea roar, and the fulness thereof : let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 ^cO give thanks unto the LORD ; for he is good ; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And ^dsay ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and ^egather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all ^fthe people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 ¶ So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD ^gAsaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required :

38 And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight ; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be ^hporters :

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the ⁱtabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at ^kGibeon,

40 To offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt-offering continually [†]morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel ;

CHAP. XVII.

✓ 1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David to build God an house, 3 after; by the word of God, forbiddeth him : 11 he promiseth him blessings and benefits in his seed. 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW ^ait came to pass, as David sat in ^bhis house, that David said to ^cNathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an ^dhouse of cedars, ^ebut the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under ^fcurtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart ; for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, ^gthat the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in :

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day ; but [†]I have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, ^hI spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars ?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the ⁱsheep-cote, even [†]from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel :

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, ^kand have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more ; ^lneither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, ^mas at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. ⁿMoreover, I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore, I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be ^owith thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons ; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He ^pshall build me an house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

13 ^qI will be his father, and he shall be my son : and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee :

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever : and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all ^rthese words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto ?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God ; ^ufor thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant ? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and ^xaccording to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these [†]great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all ^ythat we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is ^zlike thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt ?

22 For ^athy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever ; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, ^blet the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel : and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, [†]hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house : therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant :

27 Now therefore ¶ let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever : for ^cthou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites : 3 he smiteth Hadarezer and the Syrians. 9 Thou sendeth Hadoram with presents to bless David. 11 The presents and the spoil David dedicateth to God : 13 he putteth garrisons in Edom. 14 David's officers.

NOW after this ^ait came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took ^bGath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he ^csmote Moab ; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote || Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him ^a a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of † Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 ^d Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 ^e And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from || Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith ^f Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when || Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent || Hadoram his son to king David, || to enquire of his welfare, and † to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer † had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold, and silver, and brass.

11 ¶ Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, ^g with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; ^h from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites ⁱ in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.

13 ¶ ^k And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Israel, ^l and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, || recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and || Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and || Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief † about the king.

CHAP. XIX.

1 David's messengers sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villanously treated. 6 The Ammonites strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach bringing a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW it came to pass after this, that ^a Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers ^b to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, † Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, ^c and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore ^d Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midstward by their ^e buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went ^f certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, ^f Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves † odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent ^a a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before ^g Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent ^h Joab, and all the host of ⁱ the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come ^j were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that † the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the || choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of † Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 ^k Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: ^l and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; ^m and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the || river: and || Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

CHAP. XX.

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured. 4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrowes of the Philistines.

AND it came to pass, that after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it; and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear's staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant.

7 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

Ps. 44. 11.

AND Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing, therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee

12 Either three years famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 ¶ Then the ^aangel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the ^tthreshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 ¶ And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and ^abowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, † Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, * Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt-offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat-offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; † but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.

25 So ^a David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven ^bby fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; ^cand he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 ¶ At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, ^dthen he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, ^eand the altar of the burnt-offering, were at that season in the high place at ^fGibeon.

30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAP. XXII.

1 David, foreknowing the place of the temple, prepareth abundance for the building of it: 6 he instructeth Solomon in God's promises, and his duty in building the temple. 17 He chargeth the princes to assist his son.

THEN David said, ^aThis is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the ^bstrangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and ^cbrass in abundance without weight;

4 Also cedar-trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, ^dSolomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be build for the LORD must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory ^ethroughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 ¶ Then he called for Solomon his son, ^fand charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, ^git was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the ^hLORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁱThou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, ^ka son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and ^lI will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be ^mSolomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 ⁿHe shall build an house for my name; and ^ohe shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, ^pthe LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee ^qwisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then shalt ^rthou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel; be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, ^sin my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron ^twithout weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, ^uthere are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and ^vworkers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, ^wthere is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, ^xand the LORD be with thee.

17 ¶ David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, ^ysaying, 18 Is not the LORD your God with you? ^zand hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David in his old age maketh Solomon king. 2 The number and distribution of the Levites. 7 The families of the Gershonites. 12 The sons of Kohath. 21 The sons of Merari. 24 The office of the Levites.

SO when David was old and full of days, he made ^a Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of ^b thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were ¶ to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were ^c officers and judges:

5 Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith.

6 And ^d David divided them into [†] courses among the sons of Levi, namely Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the ^e Gershonites were, ¶ Laadan, and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were Jahath, ¶ Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah [†] had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of ^f Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of ^g Amram; Aaron and Moses: and ^h Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to ⁱ burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, ^k and to bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 ^l The sons of Moses were, Gershom, and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershom; ^m Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were ⁿ Rehabiah ¶ the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah [†] were very many.

18 Of the sons of Izhar; Shelomith the chief.
19 Of the sons of ^o Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jehaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

21 ¶ ^p The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their ¶ brethren the sons of Kish took them.

23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

24 ¶ These were the sons of ^q Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the ^r service of the house of the LORD, from the age of ^t twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, ¶ that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever;

26 And also unto the Levites: ^u they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David the Levites were [†] numbered from twenty years old and above:

28 Because [†] their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God;

29 Both for ^x the shew-bread, and for ^y the fine flour for meat-offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the ¶ pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of ^z measure and size;

30 And to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at even;

31 And to offer all burnt-sacrifices unto the LORD in the sabbaths, ^b in the new moons, and on the ^c set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD:

32 And that they should ^d keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, ^e and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 The division of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders. 20 The Kohathites, 27 and the Merarites divided by lot.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. ^a The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But ^b Nadab and Abihu died before their father, ^c and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David distributed them, both ^d Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and ^e Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by ^f lot, one sort with 7 Now the first lot came forth to ⁱJchoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 The third to ^kHarim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to ^lAbijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Apses,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were the ^morderings of them in their service to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: of the sons of Amram; ⁿShubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning ^oRehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

22 Of the Izharites; ^pShelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of ^qHebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jehaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 The sons of ^rMerari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 ¶ The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, ^swho had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 ^tThe sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the ^uprincipal fathers over against their younger brethren.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The number and offices of the singers. 8 Their division by lot into four and twenty orders.

MOREOVER, David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the ^asons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and ^{||}Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied [†]according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and ^{||}Zeri, and Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, ^{||}six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, ^{||}Uzziel, ^{||}Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's ^bseer in the ^{||}words of God, to lift up the ^chorn. And God ^dgave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, [†]according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.

7 So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the ^esongs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 ¶ And they ^fcast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9 Now the first lot came forth for ^gAsaph to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to ^hZaccur, he, his sons; and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to ⁱIzri, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

14 The seventh to ^kJesharelah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

15 The eighth to Jeshaiiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

16 The ninth to Mattaniah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

17 The tenth to Shimei, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The divisions of the porters. 13 The gates assigned by lot. 20 The Levites that had charge of the treasures. 29 Officers and judges.

CONCERNING the divisions of the porters : of the Korhites was ^{||} Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of ^{||} Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the first-born, Jediel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathiel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover, the sons of ^a Obed-edom, were Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth : for God blessed ^{||} him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father : for ^b they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah ; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom : they and their sons and their brethren, ^c able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also ^d Hosah of the children of Merari, had sons ; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the first-born, ^e yet his father made him the chief ;)

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth : all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

13 ¶ And they cast lots, ^{||} as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot eastward fell to ^{||} Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots ; and his lot came out northward.

15 To Obed-edom southward ; and to his sons the house of [†] Asuppim.

16 To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the going ^{||} up, ward against ward.

17 Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

18 At Parbar westward, four at the ^e causeway, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the ^f divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

20 And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the ^g treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the [†] dedicated things.

21 As concerning the sons of ^{||} Laadan ; the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were ^{||} Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli ; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the LORD.

23 Of the ^h Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites :

24 And ⁱ Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by Eliezer ; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and ^k Shelomith his son.

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the ^l dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host had dedicated.

27 [†] Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD.

28 And all that ^m Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated ; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

29 ¶ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the ⁿ outward business over Israel, for ^o officers and judges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were [†] officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business ^p of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was ^q Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at Jazer of ^r Gilead.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers ^s over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

David's exhortation to the people, and charge to Solomon.

I. CHRONICLES.

giveth him patterns for the form, and gold and silver for the materials.

AND David assembled ^aall the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and ^bthe captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and ^{||}possession of the king, and of his sons, with the ^{||}officers, and with ^cthe mighty men, and with all the valiant men unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people : ^dAs for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for ^ethe footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building :

3 But God said unto me, ^fThou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed [†]blood.

4 Howbeit, the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever : for he hath chosen ^gJudah to be the ruler ; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father ; and among the ^hsons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel :

5 ⁱAnd of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, ^kSolomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts : for I have chosen ^lhim to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be [†]constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day :

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God : that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ¶ And thou, Solomon my son, ^mknow thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind : ⁿfor the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts : ^oif thou seek him, he will be found of thee ; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now ; ^pfor the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary : be strong, and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son the ^qpattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy-seat,

12 And the pattern [†]of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, ^rof the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things :

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of gold by weight for ^tthings of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service ; ^usilver also for all instruments of ^usilver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service :

15 Even the weight for the ^xcandlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof : and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, ^yboth for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold ^yfor the tables of shew-bread, for every table ; and likewise silver for the tables of silver :

17 Also pure gold for the ^zflesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups : and for the golden ^bbasons he gave gold by weight for every bason ; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver :

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight ; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the ^ccherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, ^dBe strong and of good courage, and do it : fear not, nor be dismayed : for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee ; ^ehe will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And, behold, ^fthe courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God : and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every ^gwilling skilful man, for any manner of service : also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 David, by his example and intreaty, ⁶causeth the princes and people to offer willingly. 10 David's thanksgiving and prayer. 20 The people having blessed God, and sacrificed, make Solomon king. 26 David's reign and death.

FURTHERMORE David the king said unto ^aall the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet ^byoung and tender, and the work is great : for ^cthe palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for ^dthings to be made of gold, and the silver for ^ethings of silver, and the brass for ^fthings of brass, the iron for ^gthings of iron, and wood for ^hthings of wood ; ⁱonyx-stones, and ^jstones to be set, ^kglistening stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of ^lprecious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, ^mwhich I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of ^h Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal :

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing † to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD ?

6 ¶ Then the ⁱ chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, ^k with the rulers over the king's work; offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God, of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom ^l precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of ^m Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered ⁿ willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD : and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation : and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 ° Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty : for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine ; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour ^p come of thee, and thou reignest over all ; and in thine hand is power and might ; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, ^q we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should † be able to offer so willingly after this sort ? for all things come of thee, and † of thine own have we given thee.

15 For ^r we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers : ^t our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none † abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou ^u triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things : and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are ¶ present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the ^x imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ¶ prepare their heart unto thee :

19 And give unto ^y Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, ^z for the which I have made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, ^a Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king.

21 And ^b they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel :

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and ^c anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered ; ^d and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, † submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and ^e bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

27 And the time that he reigned over Israel ^f was forty years ; ^g seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

28 And he died in a ^h good old age, full of days, riches, and honour : and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

¶ The Second Book of the CHRONICLES.

CHAP. I.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND ^a Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the ^b LORD his God was with him, and ^c magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, ^d to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at ^e Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 ^f But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: ^g for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover, ^h the brazen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, ⁱ he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brazen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a ^j thousand burnt-offerings upon it.

7 ¶ In that night did God ^k appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me ^l to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: ^m for thou hast made me king over a people ⁿ like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 ^o Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may ^p go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 ^q And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as ^r none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and ^s reigned over Israel.

14 ^t And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 ^u And the king ^v made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycamore-trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 ^w And ^x Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen-yarn: the king's merchants received the linen-yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, ^y by their means.

CHAP. II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His embassy to Hiram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Hiram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon ^z determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out ^{aa} threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ¶ And Solomon sent to ^{ab} Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, ^{ac} As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, ^{ad} I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him ^{ae} sweet incense, and for the ^{af} continual shew-bread, and for ^{ag} the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: ^{ah} for great is our God above all gods.

6 ^{ai} But who ^{aj} is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who ^{ak} am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man ^{al} cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and in crimson, and in blue, and that can skill ^{am} to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, ^{an} whom David my father did provide.

8 ^{ao} Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, and ^{ap} algum-trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, ^{aq} my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be ^{ar} wonderful great.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

12 Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, ° that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, † endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have ^p sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's, 14 ^q The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, ^r skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, ^s which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And ^t we will cut wood out of Lebanon, † as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to † Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ ^u And Solomon numbered all † the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering ^u wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set ^y threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, ^z and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a-work.

CHAP. III.

1 The place and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house. 11 The cherubims. 14 The vail and pillars.

THEN ^a Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Moriah, † where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of ^b † Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things wherein Solomon was † instructed for the building of the house of God: ° The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the ^d porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the ^e greater house he cieled with fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm-trees and chains.

6 And he † garnished the house with ^f precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He ^g overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made ^h the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy house he made ⁱ two cherubims † of image-work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the ^k wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits: reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, ^l and their faces were † inward.

14 ¶ And he made the ^m vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and † wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house ⁿ two pillars of thirty and five cubits † high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made an hundred ^o pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he ^p reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand † Jachin, and the name of that on the left † Boaz.

MOREOVER, he made an ^a altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

2 ¶ ^b Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits † from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 ° And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon ^d twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was

7 And he made ten candlesticks of gold ^g according to their form, and set them in the temple, ^h five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 He made also ten ⁱ tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred || basons of gold.

9 ¶ Furthermore, he made the ^kcourt of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

10 And he set the sea ^l on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the || basons. And Hiram † finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the ^mpommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the top of the pillars;

13 And four hundred ⁿpomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were † upon the pillars.

14 He made also bases, and || lavers made he upon the ^obases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of † bright brass.

17 In ^pthe plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the † clay-ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: ^qfor the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19 ¶ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the ^rshew-bread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn ^safter the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And the ^tflowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that † perfect gold;

22 And the snuffers, and the || basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the ^uentry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

CHAP. V.

1 The dedicated treasures. 2 The solemn induction of the ark into the oracle. 11 God being praised, giveth a visible sign of his favour.

THUS all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: ^aand Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the ^btreasures of the house of God.

2 ¶ ^cThen Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD ^dout of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore ^eall the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast ^fwhich was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; ^gand the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, ^hthese did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, ⁱsacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, ^kto the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the ^lcherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark, and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And || there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses ^mput therein at Horeb, || when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were † present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course:

12 ⁿAlso the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, ^ohaving cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 It came even-to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, ^pFor he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD;

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: ^qfor the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

Solomon's prayer at the

THEN ^a said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the ^b thick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel ^c stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, ^d who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel.

6 But ^e I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have ^f chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now ^g it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for ^h the name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house; ⁱ but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in ^k the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel:

11 And in it have I put the ark ^l wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood ^m before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and ⁿ spread forth his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold of five cubits [†] long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had it set in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down ^o upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, ^p there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 Thou which hast ^q kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, [†] There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; ^s yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, ^t let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? ^u behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

19 ^w Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

20 ^x That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said, that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth ^y || toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall ^z make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man sin against his neighbour, [†] and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiring the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel || be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall ^a return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee || in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the ^b heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them:

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and ^c send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there ^d be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them [†] in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands || in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only ^e knowest the hearts of the children of men:)

41 Now ⁱ therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy ^m resting-place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints ⁿ rejoice in goodness.

42 O LORD God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: ^o remember the mercies of David thy servant.

CHAP. VII.

1 God having given testimony to Solomon's prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the temple, the people worship him. 4 Solomon's solemn sacrifice. 8 Solomon having kept the feast of tabernacles, and the feast of the dedication of the altar, dismisseth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon, giveth him promises upon condition.

NOW ^a when Solomon had made an end of praying, the ^b fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; ^a and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, ^d because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, ^e For ^e he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And ^g the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised † by their ministry; and the ^h priests sounded trumpets before them, and ⁱ all Israel stood.

7 Moreover, Solomon ^k hallowed the middle of the court that ⁱ was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.

8 ¶ Also at the same time ^l Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto ^m the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made † a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month ⁿ he sent the people away into their tents, ^o glad and merry in heart, for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus ^p Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 ¶ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by ^q night, and said unto him, I have heard thy ^r prayer, ^r and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

13 If ^s I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, † which are called by my name, ^t shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now ^u mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent † unto the prayer ^v that is made in this place.

17 And as for thee, ^a if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments ;

18 Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, ^b † There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 ^c But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them ;

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them ; ^d and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a by-word among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it ; so that he shall say, ^e Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house ?

22 And it shall be answered, ^f Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them : therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Solomon's buildings. 7 The Gentiles which were left, Solomon makes tributaries ; but the Israelites, rulers. 11 Pharaoh's daughter removeth to her house. 12 Solomon's yearly solemn sacrifices : 14 he appointeth the priests and Levites to their places. 17 The navy fetcheth gold from Ophir.

AND ^a it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,

2 That the cities which ^b Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built ^c Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, ^d and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars ;

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and ^e † all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ¶ ^f As for all ^e the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, ^g them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no ^h servants for his work ; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even two hundred and fifty, ⁱ that bare rule over the people.

11 ¶ And Solomon ^j brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her : for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are ^k † holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD, on the ^l altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, 13 Even after a certain rate every ^m day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, ⁿ three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 ¶ And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the ^o courses of the priests to their service, ^p and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required : the ^q porters also by their courses at every gate : for ^r † so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites, concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. ^s So the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 ¶ Then went Solomon to ^t Ezion-geber, and to ^u Elath, at the sea-side in the land of Edom.

18 And ^v Hiram sent him by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea ; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

CHAP. IX.

1 The queen of Sheba admireth the wisdom of Solomon. 13 Solomon's gold : 15 his targets. 17 The throne of ivory : 20 his vessels : 23 his presents : 25 his chariots and horses : 26 his tributes : 29 his reign and death.

AND ^a when the queen of Sheba heard of the ^b fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones : and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions : ^c and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the ^d wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his || cup-bearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; ^e there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true † report which I heard in mine own land of thine || acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit, I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, ^f which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 ^g Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on ^h his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And ⁱ she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 ^k And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought algum-trees and precious stones.

11 ^l And the king made of the algum-trees || † terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, ^m beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

14 Beside that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and || governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in ⁿ the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 ¶ Moreover, the ^o king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and † stays on each side of the sitting-place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other, upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ ^p And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of † pure gold: || none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, || ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And ^a king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 ¶ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 ¶ And Solomon ^r had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ And he reigned over all the kings ^s from the || river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king † made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycamore-trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

28 ^t And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 ¶ Now the rest of the ^u acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the † book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of ^x Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel ^y forty years.

31 And Solomon ^z slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. X.

1 The Israelites, assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam refusing the old men's counsel, by the advice of young men, answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes revolting, kill Hadoram, and make Rehoboam to flee.

AND ^a Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when ^b Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^c who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. ^d So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 ^e Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the ^f old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak ^a good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, ^b and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, ⁱ Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than ^k my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father [†] put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, ^l Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them ^m roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the ⁿ hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent ^o Hadoram ^p that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam [†] made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel ^q rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAP. XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah: 5. he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 13. The priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 18. The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND ^a when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah ^b the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, ^c Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built ^d cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even ^e Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and ^f Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, ^g having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel [†] resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for ^h Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 And he ordained him ⁱ priests for the high places, and for ^k the devils, and for ^l the calves which he had made.

16 And after them out of all the tribes of Israel, ^m such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they ⁿ strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of ^o Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamaiah, and Zerah.

20 And after her he took ^p Maachah the daughter of Absalom; which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore ^q concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, ^r to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and ^s dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah

CHAP. XII.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak: 5 he and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, ^c he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, ^a because they had transgressed against the LORD,

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the ^e Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which per- tained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came ^f Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, ^g and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak:

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king ^h humbled themselves; and they said, ⁱ The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD ^k saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them ^l some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless, they ¹ shall be his servants; that they may know ^m my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and ⁿ took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon ^o had made.

10 ^p Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the ^q chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard-chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from ^r him, that he would not destroy him altogether: ^s and also in Judah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for ^t Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, ^u the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he ^v prepared not his heart to ^w seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the ^x book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of ^y Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? ^z And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and ^{aa} Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abijah succeeding, maketh war against Jeroboam; 4 he declareth the right of his cause: 13 trusting in God, he overcometh Jeroboam. 21 The wives and children of Abijah.

NOW ^a in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was ^b Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. ^c And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah ^d set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 ¶ And Abijah stood up ^e upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel ^f gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a ^g covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath ^h rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him ⁱ vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam ^j made you for gods.

9 ^k Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh ^l to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 ^m And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the ⁿ shew-bread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, ^o to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our ^o captain, and his priests ^p with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, ^q fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

13 ¶ But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, ^r and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that ^s God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: ^t so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, ^u because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, ^x and he died.

21 ¶ But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the || story of the prophet Iddo.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Asa succeeding, destroyeth idolatry: 6 having peace, he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and armies. 9 Calling on God, he overthroweth Zerah, and spoileth the Ethiopians.

SO Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and ^a Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land ^b was quiet ten years.

2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the ^c high places, and brake down the [†] images, ^d and cut down the groves:

4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the [†] images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 ¶ And he built ^e fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had ^f given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that ^g bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: ^h all these were mighty men of valour.

9 ¶ And there came out against them Zerah the ⁱ Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto ^k Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa ^l cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is ^m nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and ⁿ in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not || man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD ^o smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto ^p Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves: for they were [†] destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the ^q fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the ^r tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and ^s returned to Jerusalem.

CHAP. XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenant with God: 16 he putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry: 18 he bringeth dedicated things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND ^a the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he went out to [†] meet Asa, and said unto him; Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; the LORD is with you, while ye be with him; ^b and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; ^c but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now ^d for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, ^e and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But ^f when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And ^g in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was [†] destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak; ^h for your work shall be rewarded.

prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the † abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, † and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, † that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And † he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them, out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD † the same time, † of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a † covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel † should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And † they swore unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: † for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 † And also concerning † Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an † idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, † and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But † the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless, the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 † And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the † five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah: 7 being reproved thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison: 11 among his other acts, in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians: 13 his death and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, † a Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at † Damascus, † saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of † his armies against the cities of Israel; and † they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the † store-cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king † took all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 † And at that time † Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, † Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not † the Ethiopians and the Lubims: † a huge host, with very many chariots and horse-men? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For † the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, † to shew himself strong in the behalf of † them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and † put him in a prison-house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa † oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 † And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: † yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians:

13 And Asa † slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had † made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled † with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made † a very great burning for him.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth: 7 he sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah: 10 his enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute: 12 his greatness, captains, and armies.

AND † Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, † and † strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, † which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD † was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and † not after the doings of Israel.

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah † brought to Jehoshaphat presents; † and he had riches and honour in abundance.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, ^h who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him ⁱ armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war.

19 These waited on the king, ^k beside those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there.

NOW ^a Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab.

2 ^b And [†] after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him ^c to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, ^d Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, ^e Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

5 Therefore ^f the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, ^g Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD [†] besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: ^h but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his || officers, and said, ⁱ Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, ^j clothed in their robes, and they sat in a || void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; ^k and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And ^l Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until [†] they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, ^m Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: ⁿ for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king [†] with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, ^o As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, ^p that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, ^q Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I ^r adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd; and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, || but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; ^s I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, 'Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake, saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a "spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a *lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, y the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, z and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go || into † an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in a the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, b then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with c small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat d cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they e turned back again † from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow † at a venture, and smote the king of Israel † between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am † wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit, the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the sun going down f he died.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is i no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor k respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do m in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be in ^b Hazazon-tamar, which is ^c En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set [†] himself to ^d seek the LORD, and ^e proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art ^f not thou God in heaven? and ^g rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, [†] who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham ^h thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 ⁱ If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for ^k thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou ^b wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, ^l but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to ^m cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, ⁿ wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: ^o but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came ^p the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

16 To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the [†] cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the ^{||} brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, ^q stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem ^r fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the ^s Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of ^t Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^u Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, ^v and [†] that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, ^y Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ [†] And when they began [†] to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and ^{||} they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped [†] to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch-tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, ^a they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and [†] none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of ^{||} Berachah; ^b for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the [†] forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the ^c LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the ^d fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his ^e God gave him rest round about.

31 ¶ ^f And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

35 ¶ And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:

36 * And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber:

CHAP. XXI.

1 Jehoram succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren: 5 his wicked reign. 8 Edom and Libnah revolt: 12 the prophecy of Elijah against him in writing: 16 the Philistines and Arabians oppress him: 18 his incurable disease, infamous death, and burial.

NOW ^a Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son || reigned in his stead.

2 And he had ^b brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great ^c gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to || Jehoram; because he was ^d the first-born.

4 Now ^e when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 ¶ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the ^f way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of ^g Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of ^h the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a † light to him and to his ⁱ sons for ever.

8 ¶ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the † dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram ^k went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did ^l Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made ^m high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to ⁿ commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a * writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made ^o Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to ^p go a whoring, ^q like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with † a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children; and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by ^r disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD ^s stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and † carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his ^t sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save || Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And || after all this the LORD smote him ^u in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And ^v came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed † without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made ^w ^x Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the ^y elders. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was ^z Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

his counsellors, after the death of his father, to his destruction.

5 ¶ He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead : and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 And he returned ^f to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds [†] which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And || Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the [†] destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram : for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed ^g to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was ^h executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and ⁱ found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 ^k And he sought Ahaziah : and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu : and when they had slain him, they buried him : Because, said they, he ^{is} the son of Jehoshaphat, ^l who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 ¶ ^m But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But ⁿ Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a ^o bed-chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God ^p six years : and Athaliah reigned over the land.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Jehoiada having set things in order, maketh Joash king. 12 Athaliah is slain. 16 Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

AND ^a in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, ^b into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a ^c covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath ^d said of the sons of David.

4 This ^{is} the thing that ye shall do : A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the [†] doors ;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house ; and a third part at ^e the gate of the foundation : and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, ^f and they that minister of the Levites ; they shall go in, for they are holy : but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the ^g Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand ; and whosoever ^{else} cometh into the house, he shall be put to death : but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took ^h every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath : for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the ⁱ courses.

9 Moreover, Jehoiada the priest delivered to ^k the captains of hundreds, spears, and bucklers, and shields, that ^{had been} king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, ^l every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right [†] side of the [†] temple, to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and ^m gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, [†] God save the king.

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD :

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar, at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king : and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also he singers with instruments of music, ⁿ and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, [†] Treason, treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the ^o captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges : and who ^o followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, ^p Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her ; and when she was come to the entering of the ^q horse-gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and ^r slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt-offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained † by David.

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada.

4 He giveth order for the repair of the temple.

15 Jehoiada's death and honourable burial. 17 Joash falling to idolatry, slayeth Zechariah the son of Jehoiada. 23 Joash is spoiled by the Syrians, and slain by Zabad and Jehozabad. 27 Amaziah succeedeth him

JOASH was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibeah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this that Joash was minded † to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made † a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and † the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the spirit of God † came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass † at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of † Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; || Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of || Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the † repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the || story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well: 3 he executeth justice on the traitors: 5 having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents and dismisseth them: 11 he overthroweth the Edomites. 10, 13 The Israelites discontented with their dismissal, spoil as they return home. 14 Amaziah, proud of his victory, serveth the gods of Edom, and despiseth the admonitions of the prophet: 17 he provoketh Joash to his overthrow: 25 his reign: 27 he is slain by conspiracy.

AMAZIAH ^a was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^b Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^c but not with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was † established to him, that he slew his servants that ^d had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law of the book of Moses where the LORD commanded, saying, ^e The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and † captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from ^f twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour ^h out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a ⁱ man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: ^k for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the † army of Israel? And the man of God answered, ^l The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go † home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home † in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the ^m valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But † the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he ⁿ brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to ^o be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the ^p gods of the people, ^q which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? ^r forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath † determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then ^s Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, ^t The || thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by † a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; ^u and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at ^w Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was † put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 16 Waxing proud, he invadeth the priest's office, and is smitten with leprosy: 22 he dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

THEN all the people of Judah took ^a || Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that ^b which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^c according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding † in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities || about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him ^d against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites gave ^e gifts to Uzziah: and his name † spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem ^f at the corner-gate, and at the valley-gate, and at the turning of the wall, and || fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and || digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains; husbandmen also, and vine-dressers in the mountains, and in || Carmel: for he loved † husbandry.

11 Moreover, Uzziah had an ^g host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's ^h captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was † an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and † slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name † spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 ¶ But when he was strong, ⁱ his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and ^k went into the temple of the LORD ^l to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It ^m appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the ⁿ priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be ^o for thine honour from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, ^p he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself ^q hastened also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 ^r And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a ^s † several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, ^t did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

23 So Uzziah ^u slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

JOTHAM ^awas twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^baccording to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit, he entered not into the temple of the LORD. ^cAnd the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of ^{||} Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover, he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built ^dcastles and towers.

5 [¶] He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley.

† So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he ^{||} prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 [¶] Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in ^ethe book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was ^ffive and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 [¶] And Jotham ^gslept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Ahaz reigning very wickedly, is greatly afflicted by the Syrians. 6 Judah being captivated by the Israelites, is sent home by the counsel of Oded the prophet. 16 Ahaz sending for aid to Assyria, is not helped thereby. 22 In his distress he groweth more idolatrous. 26 He dying, Hezekiah succeedeth him.

AHAZ ^awas twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also ^bmolten images for ^cBaalim.

3 Moreover he ^{||} burnt incense in ^dthe valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt ^ehis children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the ^fLORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to [†]Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the ^gking of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 [¶] For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all [†]valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was [†]next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their ^bbrethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, ⁱwhose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was ^kwroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth ^lup unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for ^mbond-men and bond-women unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: ⁿfor the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the ^oheads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and ^pthere is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which ^qwere expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, ^rand gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, ^sthe city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 [¶] At that time did ^tking Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away [†]captives.

18 The ^uPhilistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shochu with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he made Judah ^wnaked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And ^xTilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a ^yportion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king;

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, ^c and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places ¶ to burn incense unto ^d other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

9 For, lo, ^h our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a ⁱ covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, ¶ be not now negligent: for the LORD hath ^k chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and ¶ burn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of ^l Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of ^m Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and ⁿ sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, ¶ by the words of the LORD, to ^o cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it to carry it out abroad into the ^p brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the ^q porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have ^r cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign ^s did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought ^t seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a ^u sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and ^x sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought † forth the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their ^y hands upon them:

25 ^b And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, ^c according to the commandment of David, and of ^d Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment [†] of the LORD [†] by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar. And [†] when the burnt-offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the [†] instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were [†] present with him ^e bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of ^f Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have ^{||} consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and ^g thank-offerings; and as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, ^h was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites [†] did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the ⁱ Levites were more ^k upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with ^l the fat of the peace-offerings, and the ^m drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, ^a to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second ^b month.

3 For they could not keep it at ^c that time, because the priests had ^d not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing [†] pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout ^e all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters [†] from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, ^f turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of ^g the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye ^h like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now [†] be ⁱ ye not stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but [†] yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, ^k that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find ^l compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is ^m gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ⁿ ye return unto him.

10 So the ^o posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, ^p and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, ^q divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them ^r one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the ^s altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the ^t brook Kidron.

and the Levites were ^u ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood [†] in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses ^w the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were ^x not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the [†] king of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, ^y even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, ^z yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one

19 That ^a prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were [†] present at Jerusalem kept the ^b feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with [†] loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake [†] comfortably unto all the Levites ^c that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept ^d other seven days with gladness.

24 For ^e Hezekiah king of Judah [†] did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep: and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a ^f great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation ^g that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 ¶ Then the priests the Levites arose ^h and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to [†] his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The people are forward in destroying idolatry. 2 Hezekiah ordereth the courses of the priests and Levites, and provideth for their work and maintenance. 6 The people's forwardness in offerings and tithes. 11 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes. 20 The sincerity of Hezekiah.

NOW when all this was finished, all Israel that were [†] present went out to the cities of Judah, and ^a brake the [†] images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, [†] until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed the ^b courses of the priests ^c and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the ^d king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the ^e law of the LORD.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the ^f portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in ^g the law of the LORD.

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment [†] came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance ^h the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and [†] honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the ⁱ tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them [†] by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, ^k they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, [†] Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD ^m hath blessed his people; and that which is left ⁿ is this great store.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers [†] under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah saalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, ^aprayed and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ And the LORD sent an ^aangel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels [†]slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought ^agifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and [†]presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ¶ ^aIn those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he ^{||} gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah ^arendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; [†]for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself for [†]the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the ^awrath of the LORD came not upon them ^bin the days of Hezekiah.

27 ¶ And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of [†]pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover, he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for ^cGod had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also ^dstopped the upper water-course of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 ¶ Howbeit, in the business of the [†]ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who ^esent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, ^fto try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his [†]goodness, behold, they are written in the ^gvision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah ^hslept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ^{||} chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him ⁱhonour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Manasseh's wicked reign: 3 he setteth up idolatry, and would not be admonished: 11 he is carried into Babylon: 12 upon his prayer to God he is released, and putteth down idolatry: 18 his acts: 20 he dying, Amon succeedeth him. 21 Amon reigning wickedly, is slain by his servants. 25 The murderers being slain, Josiah succeedeth him.

MANASSEH ^awas twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the ^babominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 ¶ For [†]he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had ^cbroken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, ^dIn Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the ^etwo courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he ^fcaused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he ^gobserved times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and ^hdealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In ⁱthis house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 ^kNeither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem ^lto err, and ^mto do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ ⁿWherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host [†]of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with ^{||}fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he ^obesought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he ^pwas intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh ^qknew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of ^rGihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish-gate, and compassed about ^{||}Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

JOSIAH ^awas eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was ^bright in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began ^cto purge Judah and Jerusalem from the ^dhigh places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 ^eAnd they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the ^{||} images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the [†] graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the ^f priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their ^{||} mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images [†] into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now in the ^g eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maa-seiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the ^h money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the ⁱ hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house:

11 Even to the ^k artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and ^{||} to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work ^l faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, ^m and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest ⁿ found a book of the law of the LORD given [†] by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in ^o the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed [†] to thy servants, they do it.

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, † great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were † present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not † from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover: 20 he provoking Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo.

25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER, Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah † gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover-offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes † gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jehiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, † gave unto the Levites for passover-offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

CHAP. I.

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple. 5 The people provide for their return. 7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD^a by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he † made a ° proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath^b charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (° he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place † help him with silver; and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the free-will-offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God^d had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them ¶ strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 ¶ Also ° Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, ° which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto ° Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did^b Sheshbazzar bring up with them of † the captivity that were brought up from Babylonⁱ unto Jerusalem.

CHAP. II.

1 The number that returned of the people, 36 of the priests, 40 of the Levites, 43 of the Nethinims, 55 of Solomon's servants, 62 of the priests which could not shew their pedigree. 64 The whole number of them, with their substance. 68 Their oblations.

NOW^a these are the children of the^b province that went up out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon ° had carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city;

2 Which came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, ¶ Serai^h, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilsham, Mizpar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

† Verse 11.

4 Then the ^f people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of ^s Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of [†] Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote [¶] Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their [†] companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the [¶] scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their [†] companions; the ^h Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,

10 And the ⁱ rest of the nations, whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and [†] at such a time.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews ^k which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have [¶] set up the walls thereof, and [†] joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not [†] pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the [¶] revenue of the kings.

14 Now because [†] we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, ⁱ and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have [†] moved sedition [†] within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king, that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means ^m thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their [†] companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

18 The ⁿ letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And [†] I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath [†] made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been ^o mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries ^p beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 [†] Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and ^q that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in ^r haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease [†] by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased ^s unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAP. V.

1 Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple. 3 Tatnai and Shethar-boznai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Jews.

THEN the prophets, ^a Haggai the prophet, and ^b Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up ^c Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 ¶ At the same time came to them ^d Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, ^e Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are ^f the names of the men [†] that make this building?

5 But the eye of their ^g God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 ¶ The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, ^h and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, [†] wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to ⁱ the house of the great God, which is builded with [†] great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, ^k Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked ^l their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the ^m God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded ⁿ and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of ^o Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of ^p Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And ^q the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was ^r Sheshbazzar, whom he had made || governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, ^s and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, ^t and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be ^u search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a ^x decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAP. VI.

1 Darius finding the decree of Cyrus, maketh a new decree for the advancement of the building.

13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 16 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the pass-over.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the [†] rolls, where the treasures were [†] laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at || Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, ^a Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 With ^b three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let ^c the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and [†] brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, ^d Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and [†] your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

7 ^e Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover, [†] I make a decree what ye shall do to the ^f elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not [†] hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, ^g wheat, ^h salt, ⁱ wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices [†] of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of ^k the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, [†] let him be hanged thereon; and let ^l his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God ^m that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 And the ⁿ elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the [†] commandment of ^o Cyrus, and ^p Darius, and ^q Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 ¶ And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of [†] the children of the captivity, kept the ^r dedication of this house of God with joy, 17 And ^s offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin-offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their ^t divisions, and 22 And kept the feast of ^c unleavened bread seven days with joy; for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the ^d heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

CHAP. VII.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem. 11 The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to him. 27 He blesteth God for his favour.

NOW ^a after these things, in the reign of ^b Artaxerxes king of Persia, ^c Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, ^d the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ^e ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, ^f according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And ^g there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the ^h Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the ⁱ Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month † began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, ^k according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and ^l to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, ^m king of kings, ¶ unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, ⁿ and at such a time.

13 I make a ^o decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own free-will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent † of the king, and of his ^p seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the ^y king's treasure-house.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, ^a it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set ^b magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and ^c teach ye them that know them not.

2 Of the sons of ^c Phinchas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; ^d Hattush.

3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of ^e Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty.

4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of ^f Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of ^g Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan ^h the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and ⁱ Zabud, and with them seventy males.

15 ¶ And I gathered them together to the river ^j that runneth to Ahava; and there ^k abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, ^l and found there none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for She-maiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and ^m I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims; at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the ⁿ good hand of our God upon us they brought us a ^o man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 ^p Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 ¶ Then I ^q proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might ^r afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him ^s a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ^t ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, ^u The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is ^v against all them ^w that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he ^x was intreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the ^y silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold of a thousand drams; and two vessels of ^z fine copper; ^a precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, ^b Ye are holy unto the LORD; the vessels ^c are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a free-will-offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 ¶ Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: ^d and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such ^e as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we ^f came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 ¶ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels ^g weighed in the house house of our God by the hand of ^aMeremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was ^dJozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, ^ewhich were come out of the captivity, offered burnt-offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And they delivered the king's ^fcommissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

CHAP. IX.

¶ Ezra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers. 5 He prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW ^awhen these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not ^bseparated themselves from the people of the lands, doing ^caccording to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have ^dtaken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the ^eholy seed have ^fmingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, ^gI rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down ^hastonied.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 ¶ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my ^{||}heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, ⁱand spread out my hands unto the LORD my God;

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our ^{||}trespass is grown up ^kunto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a [†]little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us ^{||}a nail in his holy place, that our God may ^llighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were ^mbondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and [†]to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, 11 Which thou hast ⁿcommanded [†]by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the ^ofilthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it [†]from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore ^pgive not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, ^qnor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and ^rleave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God [†]hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join ^tin affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us ^utill thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou ^vart righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: ^xfor we cannot stand before thee because of this.

CHAP. X.

2 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning, assembleth the people. 9 The people, at the exhortation of Ezra, repent and promise amendment.

15 The care to perform it. 18 The names of them which had married strange wives.

NOW ^awhen Ezra had prayed, and when he ^bhad confessed, weeping and casting himself down ^bbefore the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people [†]wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, ^cWe have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is ^dhope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God [†]to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that ^etremble at the ^fcommandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: ^gbe of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. ^hAnd they sware.

6 ¶ Then

6 ¶ Then Ezra ¹rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat ^kno bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made ¹proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within ^mthree days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be [†]forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, ⁿand for [†]the great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and [†]have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore ^omake confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and ^pseparate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, ^qAs thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for || we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, ^runtil the fierce wrath of our God || for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah [†]were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the ^tchildren of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, ^uwith certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

¶ The Book of NEHEMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Nehemiah understanding by Hanani, the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth.
5 His prayer.

THE words of ^aNehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, ^bin the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That ^cHanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in ^dthe province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also ^eis broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and ^ffasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, ^gO LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that ^hlove him and observe his commandments:

6 ⁱLet thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt ^kvery corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ^lIf ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; ^mthough there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy servants and ⁿthy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O LORD, I beseech thee, ^olet now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, ^pwho desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. ^qFor I was the king's cup-bearer.

CHAP. II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sadness, sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem. 9 Nehemiah, to the grief of the enemies, cometh to Jerusalem: 12 he vieweth secretly the ruins of the walls: 17 he inciteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of ^aArtaxerxes the king, that wine was before him; and ^bI took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been before-time sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but ^csorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, ^dLet the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and ^ethe gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? ^fSo I prayed to the God of heaven,

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the ^gqueen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; ^hand I set him a time.

7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the ⁱpalace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ^jaccording to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 ¶ Then I came to the ^kgovernors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it ^lgrieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there ^mthree days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I ⁿany man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night by the ^ogate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, ^pwhich were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the ^qgate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the ^rbrook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

CHAP. IV.

1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth, and continueth the work. 7 Understanding the wrath and secrets of the enemy, he setteth a watch.

13 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

BUT it came to pass, that when ^a Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, ^b and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren, and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they [†] fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now ^c Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God; for we are [†] despised: and turn their reproach ^d upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover ^e not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem [†] were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, [‡] then they were very wroth,

8 And ^g conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and [†] to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made ^h our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much ⁱ rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, ^k They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, ¶ From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I [†] in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, ^l Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord ^m which is great and terrible, and fight ⁿ for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought ^o their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both ^p the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded [†] by his side, and so builded. And he [‡] that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: ^r our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, [¶] saving that every one put them off for washing.

and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, ^c that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's ^d tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is ^e as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring ^f into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 ¶ Then [†] I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, ^g Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have ^h redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, ⁱ and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in ^k the fear of our God ^l because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, ^m and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also ⁿ I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and [†] emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. ^o And the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, ^p from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have ^q not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did ^r not I, because of the ^t fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover, there were at my ^u table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me ^w daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: ^x yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 ^y Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAP. VI.

1 Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophecies, to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished to the terror of the enemies.

17 Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, when ^a Sanballat, and Tobiah, and ^b Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though ^c at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, ^d Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of ^e Ono. ^f But they thought to do me mischief.

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and ^{||} Gashmu saith it, ^{||} that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no ^h such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of ⁱ She-maiah the son of ^j Delaiah the son of Meheta-beel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, ^k Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him,^m but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, ^a think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the ^o prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, ^p that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work ^q was wrought of our God.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 5 A register of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 8 of the people, 39 of the priests, 43 of the Levites, 46 of the Nethinims, 57 of Solomon's servants, 63 and of the priests which could not find their pedigree. 66 The whole number of them with their substance. 70 Their oblations.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, ^a and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my ^b brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the ^c palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, ^d and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was [†] large and great: but the people were few therein, ^e and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 ^f These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that

9 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

10 The children of ^h Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

AND all ^a the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before ^b the water-gate; and they spake unto Ezra the ^c scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel.2 And Ezra the priest brought ^d the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all ^e that could hear with understanding, ^f upon the first day of the seventh month.3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water-gate ^g from the morning until mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; ^h and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a ⁱ pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose;Before

5 And Ezra ^g opened the book in the † sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people ^h stood up:

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, ⁱ Amen, Amen, with ^k lifting up their hands: and ^l they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, ^m caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is || the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, ⁿ This day is holy unto the LORD your God; ^o mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, ^p and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither be ye sorry: for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, ^q and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because ^r they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even || to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded † by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in ^s booths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And that they should publish ^t and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, ^u Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the ^x roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water-gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and ^y sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. ^z And there was very great gladness.

18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, ^a he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was ^b a solemn assembly, ^c according unto the manner.

CHAP. IX.

1 A solemn fast, and repentance of the people. 4 The Levites make a religious confession of God's goodness, and their wickedness.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of ^a this month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, ^b and earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all ^c strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and ^d read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the || stairs, of the Levites, ^e Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and ^f blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; ^g thou hast made heaven, ^h the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou ⁱ preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose ^j Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees; and gavest him the name of ^k Abraham;

8 And foundest his heart ^l faithful before thee, and madest a ^m covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, ⁿ to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 ^o And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea;

10 And ^p shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. ^q So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 ^r And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the ^s mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou ^t leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar

13 ^a Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and ^x spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and [†] true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them ^y thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And ^a gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and ^b broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should ^c go in to possess the land [†] which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, ^d neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed ^e a captain to return to their bondage: but thou ^{art} [†] a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, ^f when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in ^g thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the ^h pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy ⁱ good spirit to instruct them, and witheldest not thy ^k manna from their mouth, and gavest them ^l water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their ^m clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of ⁿ Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou ^o as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the ^p children went in and possessed the land, and thou ^q subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them [†] as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, ^{||} wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and [†] fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great ^r goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy ^s prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore thou ^t deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou ^u gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, [†] they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and ^x many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: ^y yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, ^a he shall live in them;) and [†] withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou [†] forbear them, and testifiedst ^b against them by thy spirit [†] in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou ^{art} a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, ^c who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the [†] trouble seem little before thee, [†] that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, ^d since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit thou ^{art} ^e just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, ^f but we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have ^g not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, ^h and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, ⁱ we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the ^k kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion ^l over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

16 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

18 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

19 Moreover, the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred seventy and two.

20 ¶ And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

21 But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispah were over the Nethinims.

22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God.

23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.

24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah ; of Jedaiah, Nehameel.

22 ¶ The Levites in the days of ^s Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers : also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the ^h chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites : Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, ⁱ according to the commandment of David the man of God, ^k ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the ^l thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of ^l Nehemiah the governor, and of ^m Ezra the priest, the scribe.

27 ¶ And at the ⁿ dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, ^o both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of ^p Netophathi ;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth : for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, ^q and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on ^r the right hand upon the wall toward ^s the dung-gate :

32 And after them went Hoshai, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, 35 And certain of the priests' sons ^t with trumpets ; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph :

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, ^u with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 And at the ^w fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by ^x the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the ^y water-gate eastward.

38 And the ^a other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond ^b the tower of the furnaces even unto the ^c broad wall ;

39 And from above the ^d gate of Ephraim, and above ^e the old gate, and above the ^f fish-gate, and the ^g tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the ^h sheep-gate ; and they stood still in the ⁱ prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me :

41 And the priests ; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets ;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers [†] sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they ^k offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced : for God had made them rejoice with great joy : the wives also and the children rejoiced : so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And ^l at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions ^l of the law for the priests and Levites : [†] That is, appointed by the law, [†] Heb. for the joy of Judah.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, ^m according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David ⁿ and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion : and they ^o sanctified holy things unto the Levites ; ^o and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

1 Upon the reading of the law, separation is made from the mixed multitude. 4 Nehemiah at his return causeth the chambers to be cleansed. 10 He reformeth the offices in the house of God, 15 the violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives.

howbeit, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest. † having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah :

5 And he had prepared for him ^d a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, † which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters ; and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem : † for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and † after certain days || obtained I leave of the king :

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, † in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore : therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, ^h and they cleansed the chambers : and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the ⁱ portions of the Levites had not been given them : for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, ^k were fled every one to his field.

11 Then I contended I with the rulers, and said, ^m Why is the house of God forsaken ? and I gathered them together, and set them in their † place.

12 ⁿ Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the || treasuries.

13 And I made ^o treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah : and † next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah : for they were counted faithful, and † their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 ^p Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my † good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the || offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine-presses on the ^q sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses ; as also wine, grapes, and figs, ^r and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day : and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of ^s Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day ?

18 ^u Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city ? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the ^x sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath : and some of my servants set I at the gates, ^y that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants ^a and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye † about the wall ? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come ^b and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. ^c Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the || greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that † had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab :

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and † could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language † of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and || cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and ^d made them swear by God saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 ^e Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things ? ^f yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel : ^g nevertheless, even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, ^h to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives ?

28 And one of the sons of ⁱ Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite : therefore I chased him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, † because they have defiled the priesthood, ^k and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards ^l of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business ;

31 And for the ^m wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. ⁿ Remember me, O my God, for good.

CHAP. I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti sent for, refuseth to come. 13 Ahasuerus by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of ^aAhasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from ^bIndia even unto Ethiopia, over an ^chundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in ^dShushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, ^ehe made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were ^fpresent in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of ^fthe king's palace;

6 Where were white, green, and ^{||} blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement ^{||} of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and [†]royal wine in abundance, [†]according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, ^gwhen the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Memucan, Biztha, ^hHarbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven ^{||}chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king;

11 ⁱTo bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was [†]fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment [†]by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the ^kwise men, which ^lknew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, She-thar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the ^mseven princes of Persia and Media, ⁿwhich saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom:)

B B 2

15 [†]What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed ^othe commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall ^pdespise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of ^qPersia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 [†]If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment [†]from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, ^r[†]that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate [†]unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give ^sto their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying [†]pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of ^tMemucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, ^uinto every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and [†]that it should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAP. II.

1 Out of the choice of virgins, a queen is to be chosen. 5 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther. 8 Esther is preferred by Hegai before the rest. 12 The manner of purification, and going in to the king. 15 Esther best pleasing the king, is made queen. 21 Mordecai discovering a treason, is recorded in the chronicles.

AFTER these things, ^vwhen the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, ^wand what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the ^xking's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be ^yfair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, ^z[†]unto the custody of ^{||}Hege the king's chamberlain, f Ezra 2. 1. 5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain ^fJew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite; g 2 Kings 24. 15. 2 Chron. 36. 10. Jer. 24. 1. 6 Who had been ^ecarried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

h Verse 3. 8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, ^hand when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of ⁱHegai, keeper of the women.

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

n See chap. 1. 10. 14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, ⁿthe king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

o Verse 7. cir. 515. 15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the ^ouncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, ^m and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

4 Then the king held out the ^dgolden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

12 Upon ⁿ one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The ^o copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was [†] published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the ^p posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of ^{||} blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the ^q city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad:

16 The Jews had ^r light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a ^s good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; ^t for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAP. IX.

1 The Jews (the rulers, for fear of Mordecai, helping them) slay their enemies, with the ten sons of Haman. 2 Ahasuerus, at the request of Esther, granteth another day of slaughter, and Haman's sons to be hanged. 20 The two days of Purim are made festival.

NOW in the ^a twelfth month, that is, the month Adar; on ^b the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had ^c rule over them that hated them;)

2 The ^d Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; ^e for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and [†] officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai ^f waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did [†] what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed ^g five hundred men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, 9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ^h ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace [†] was brought ⁱ before the king.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? ^k now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, ^l If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also ^m according unto this day's decree, and [†] let Haman's ten sons be ⁿ hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan ^o gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; ^p but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces ^q gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, ^r but they laid not their hands on the prey, 17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day [†] of the same rested they, and made it a ^s day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the ^t thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar ^u a day of gladness and feasting, and a ^v good day, and of ^w sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the ^y fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

THERE was a man in the land of ^a Uz, whose name was ^b Job; and that man was ^c perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His ^{||} substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great ^{||} household; so that this man was the greatest of all the [†] men of the east.

4 And ^d his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, ^e and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, [†] Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

17 ¹ Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:

18 For he ^m maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 ⁿ He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war [†] from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid ^{||} from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 ^o For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know ^{||} that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not ^{||} sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be ^{||} great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn [†] cometh in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it [†] for thy good.

CHAP. VI.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless: 8 he wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort: 14 he reproveth his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job ^a answered and said,
2 Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity [†] laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than ^b the sand of the sea: therefore ^{||} my words are swallowed up.

4 For ^c the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the ^d terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray [†] when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 ^e The things that my soul refused to touch are as [†] my sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me [†] the thing that I long for!

9 Even that it would ^g please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; ^h for I have not concealed the words of the ⁱ Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh [†] of brass?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 [†] To him that is afflicted pity should be ^k shewed from his friend: but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My ^l brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks ^m they pass away;

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm, [†] they vanish: [†] when it is hot, they are [†] consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

19 The troops of ⁿ Tema looked, the companies of ^o Sheba waited for them.

20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

21 ^{||} For now ye are [†] nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid.

22 Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, ^p and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How ^q forcible are right words! ^r but what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are ^s as wind?

27 Yea, [†] ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it [†] is [†] evident unto you if I lie.

29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is ^{||} in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot [†] my taste discern perverse things?

CHAP. VII.

1 Job excuseth his desire of death; 12 he complaineth of his own restlessness, and of God's watchfulness.

IS there not ^{||} an ^a appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?

2 As a servant [†] earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possess ^b months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and [†] the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 ^c My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more ^{||} see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and ^{||} I am not.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth ; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit ; I will complain in the ^f bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me ?

13 When I say, My bed shall ^g comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint ;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions :

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather [†] than my life.

16 I loathe it ; I would not live alway : let me alone ; for my days are vanity.

17 ^h What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him ? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him ?

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment ?

19 How long wilt thou not ⁱ depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle ?

20 I have sinned ; what shall I do unto thee, O thou ^k Preserver of men ; why hast thou set me as ^l a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself ?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity ? for now shall I sleep in the dust ; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works : 8 he allegeth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite : 20 he applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered ^a Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things ? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like ^b a strong wind ?

3 ^c Doth God pervert judgment ? or doth the Almighty pervert justice ?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away [†] for their transgression ;

5 ^d If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty ;

6 ^e If thou wert pure and upright ; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 ^f For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers :

9 (For ^g we are but of yesterday, and know [†] nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow :)

10 Shall not they teach thee, ^h and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart ?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire ? can the flag grow without water ?

12 ⁱ Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God ; and the ^k hypocrite's hope shall perish :

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be [†] a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, ^l but it shall not stand : he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, ^m saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he [†] help the evil doers :

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with [†] rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame ; and the dwelling-place of the wicked [†] shall come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

Job acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth : but how should ^a man be just ^{||} with God ?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and ^b mighty in strength : who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered ?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not : which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which ^c shaketh the earth out of her place, and the ^d pillars thereof tremble.

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not ; and sealeth up the stars.

8 ^e Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the [†] waves of the sea.

9 ^f Which maketh [†] Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 ^g Which doeth great things past finding out ; yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not : he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 ^h Behold, he taketh away, [†] who can hinder him ? who will say unto him, What doest thou ?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the [†] proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him ?

15 Whom, though I ⁱ were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to ^k my judge.

16 If I had called, ^l and he had answered me ; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds ^m without cause.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, ^a He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh

24 The earth is given into the hand of the 34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him;
[†] but it is not so with me.

CHAP. X.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions: 18 he complain-eth of life, and craveth a little ease before death.

MY soul is || weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me;
shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise [†] the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou ^a as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 [†] Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 Thine hands [†] have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 ^c Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast [†] fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast ^d granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou ^e markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, ^f woe unto me; and if ^g I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; ^h therefore see thou mine affliction;

16 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me ⁱ as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest || thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me;
changes and war are against me.

18 ^k Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? O that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 ^m Are not my days few? ⁿ cease then, ^o and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness, and the shadow of death;

22 A land of ^p darkness, as darkness itself; and of the ^q shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

CHAP. XI.

1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself.
5 God's wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

THEN answered ^a Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the ^b multitude of words be answered? and should [†] a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy || lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For thou hast said, ^c My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the ^d secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is!
Know therefore, that God exacteth of thee ^e less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 Canst thou by searching ^f find out God?
canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is [†] as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

12 For † vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 If thou prepare thine heart, and † stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not ^h wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 For then shalt thou ⁱ lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt ^k forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And ^l thine age † shall be clearer than the noon-day: thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and ^l thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall † make suit unto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and ^m their hope shall be as † the giving up of the ghost.

CHAP. XII.

Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him: 7 he acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered and said,
2 No doubt but ye are the people, ^a and wisdom shall die with you.

3 ^b But I have † understanding as well as you; † I am not inferior to you: yea, † who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am ^c as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 The ^d tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the † soul of every living thing, and the breath of † all mankind.

11 ^e Doth not the ear try words? and the † mouth taste his meat?

12 With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 † With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: ^f he shutteth † up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, ^g he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 ^h With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 ^k He removeth away † the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 He poureth contempt upon princes, and † weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 He ^l discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and † straiteneth them again.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 ^m They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to † stagger like a drunken man.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality: 14 he professeth his confidence in God, 20 and intreateth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

L O, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 ^a What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, ^b and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ^c ye are all physicians of no value.

5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace; ^d and it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will ye speak wickedly for God? ^e and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely ^f reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 † Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, ^g and put my life in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will † maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

24 Wherefore ^ahidest thou thy face, and hold-est me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and ^amakest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 ^aThou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and [†]lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the [†]heels of my feet.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Job intreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is [†]of few days, ^aand full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one; ^band bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 [†]Who ^ccan bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 ^dSeeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

6 Turn from him, that he may [†]rest, till he shall accomplish, ^eas an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will ^fsprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof ^gdie in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and [†]wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, ^hand where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: ⁱtill the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret ^kuntil thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

16 ^mFor now thou numberest my steps: ⁿdost thou not watch over my sin?

17 ^oMy transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling [†]cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou [†]wash-est away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth, ^pand thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

CHAP. XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself. 17 He proveth by tradition the unquietness of wicked men.

THEN answered ^aEliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter [†]vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, [†]thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God.

5 For [†]thy mouth [†]uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine ^bown mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God? and ^cdost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, ^dthat we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are ^eboth the gray-headed and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? ^fis there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest ^gsuch words go out of thy mouth?

15 ⁱBehold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which ^kdrinketh iniquity like water?

23 He ^o wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ^p ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself ^q against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 Because he covereth his face with his ^r fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in ^s desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, ^t and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness: 7 he sheweth the pitifulness of his case: 17 he maintaineth his innocence.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 I have heard many such things: || ^a miserable comforters are ye all.

3 Shall † vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, ^b and shake mine head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged: and though I forbear, † what am I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weary: ^c thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 He ^d teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

10 They have ^e gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me ^f upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.

11 God † ^g hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me ^h up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare: he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach ⁱ upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in ^k the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, ^l and let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, ^m my witness is in heaven, and my record is † on high.

20 My friends † scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his || neighbour!

22 When † a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted, may astonish, but not discourage the righteous: 11 his hope is not in life, but in death.

MY || breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, ⁿ the graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me; and doth not mine eye † continue in their ^o provocation?

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that ^p will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid thine heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also ^q a by-word of the people; and || aforetime I was as a tabret.

7 Mine eye also ^r is dim by reason of sorrow, and all || my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath ^s clean hands † shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, ^t do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 ^a How long will ye ^b vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words ?

3 These ^c ten times have ye reproached me : ye are not ashamed that ye || make yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

17 He may prepare it, h but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a moth, i and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 k Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: l and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare:
† he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things: 12 but wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is † a vein for the silver, and † a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the † earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and a the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, b they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh c bread:
and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires:
and it hath † dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 d The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the † rock; i he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks;
and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods † from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But e where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the f price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 g The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 † It h cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it:
and the exchange of it shall not be for † jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of † coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 i Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the † air.

22 Destruction and death say, k We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth,
l and seeth under the whole heaven;

25 To make the weight m for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 n When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:

27 Then did he see it, and † declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

CHAP. XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity and honour.

MOREOVER Job † continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 When his || candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, °when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured † me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 † The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 °When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because °I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 °I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake † the jaws of the wicked, and † plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root was † spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was † fresh in me, and my bow was † renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 °After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide °as for the latter rain.

24 If °I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt; 15 his prosperity into calamity.

BUT now they that are † younger than I, have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were || solitary; fleeing into the wilderness † in former time desolate and waste.

4 °Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

5 °They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in † caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of † base men: they were viler than the earth.

9 °And now am I their song, yea, I am their by-word.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, † and spare not to spit in my face.

11 Because he hath °loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue † my soul as the wind; and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And °now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no °rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the °mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I °stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art † become cruel to me: with † thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my || substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house °appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the † grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 °Did not I weep † for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 °When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me.

28 I °went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 °I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to-|| owls.

CHAP. XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I Made a covenant with mine ° eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what ° portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 ° Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 † Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine ° heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

8 Then let me sow, ° and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my ° wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity ° to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my man-servant or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and † did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided † her from my mother's womb;)

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not ° blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand against ° the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arm be broken from † the bone.

23 For ° destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold ° my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had † gotten much;

26 If I beheld † the sun when it shined, or the moon walking † in brightness;

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or † my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were an ° iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him:

30 Neither have I suffered † my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors † to the traveller.

33 If I covered my transgressions † as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:

34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

35 Oh that one would hear me! † behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof † complain;

39 If I have eaten † the fruits thereof without money, or have † caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and † cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends.

9 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he excuseth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproveth them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

16 His zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased † to answer Job, because he was ° righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the ° Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified † himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, ° and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had † waited till Job had spoken, because they were † elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was ° no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am † young, and ye ° are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and † durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and ° the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would soon take me away.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job: 8 he excuseth God from giving man an account of his ways by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry: 31 he inciteth Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, ^a and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken † in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness ^b of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The ^c Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 ^d Behold, I am † according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am † formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken † in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am ^e clean without transgression, I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for ^f his enemy.

11 He ^g putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou ^h strive against him? for † he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh ⁱ once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a ^k dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then † he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, 17 That he may withdraw man from his † purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life † from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 ^l So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul † dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen ^m stick out.

22 Yea, ⁿ his soul draweth near unto the grave, ⁿ and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be ^o a messenger with him, an in- terpreter, one ^p among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, ^q Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found ‖ a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher † than a child's: ^r he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his right- eousness.

27 ‖ He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profiteth me not;

28 ‖ He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God † often- times with man, 30 ^s To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, ^t hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with in- justice. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust.

31 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Eli- hu reproveth Job.

FURTHERMORE Elihu answered and said, 2 Hear my words, ^a O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 ^b For the ear trieth words, as the † mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, ^c I am righteous: and ^d God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? † my wound is incurable ^e without transgression.

7 What man is like Job, ^f who drinketh up scorning like water?

Should it be from with thee?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For he hath said, ^gIt profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye [†]men of understanding: ^hfar be it from God that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 ⁱFor the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed [†]the whole world?

14 If he set his heart [†]upon man, ^kif he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 ^lAll flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he that hateth right [†]govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that ^maccepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and [†]the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 ⁿFor his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should [†]enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men [†]without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are [†]destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men [†]in the open sight of others;

27 Because they turned back [†]from him, and would ^onot consider any of his ways:

28 So that they cause the ^pcry of the poor to come unto him, ^qand he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 That which I see not, teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 [†]Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men [†]of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 Job hath spoken ^rwithout knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 ^{||}My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, ^she clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said, 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, ^athat thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For thou saidst, ^bWhat advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, ^{||}if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 [†]I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 Look unto the ^cheavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou ^dagainst him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 ^eIf thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 ^fThy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: ^gthey cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, Where is God ^hmy maker, who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who ^kteacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 ^lSurely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, ^{||}he hath visited in his anger; yet ^{||}he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth ^min vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways, 16 how Job's sins hinder God's blessings. 24 God's works are to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said, 2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee [†]that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my ^aMaker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is ^bperfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and † wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the || poor.

7 ^c He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but ^d with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be ^e bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, ^f and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He ^g openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall ^h spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, † they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart ⁱ heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

14 † They die in youth, and their life is among the || unclean.

15 He delivereth the || poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a ^k broad place, where there is no straitness; and † that ^l which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: || judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot † deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem ^m thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, ⁿ regard not iniquity: ^o for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: ^p who teacheth like him?

23 Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou ^q magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not, ^r neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh small ^s the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, ^v or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth ^w his light upon it, and covereth † the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them ^x judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine ^y by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning † the vapour.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works.

15 His wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart ^a trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 † Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his † lightning unto the † ends of the earth.

4 After it a ^b voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; ^c great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For ^d he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; † likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 † Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the † north.

10 By the breath of God ^e frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth † his bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he ^f commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for † correction, ^g or for his land, ^h or for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him spread out ^k the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking-glass?

19 ^l Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 † Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, ^m we cannot find him out: he is ⁿ excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore ^o fear him: he respecteth not any that are ^p wise of heart.

4 ^c Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, [†] if thou hast understanding.

10 And || brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall [†] thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou ^f commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the [†] ends of the earth, that the wicked might be ^g shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, [†] Here we are?

36 ^o Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or [†] who can stay the bottles of heaven,

39 ^p Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill [†] the appetite of the young lions, 19 Hast thou given the horse ⁱ strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is [†] terrible.

21 || He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet [†] the armed men.

22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He saith among the trumpets, ^m Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

27 Doth the eagle ⁿ mount up [†] at thy command, ^o and make her nest on high?

28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

30 Her young ones also suck up blood: and ^p where the slain are, there is she.

CHAP. XL.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to shew his righteousness, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the behemoth.

MOREOVER, the LORD ^a answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that ^b contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, ^c I am vile; what shall I answer thee? ^d I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then ^e answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 ^f Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 ^g Wilt thou also disannul my judgment?

wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? ^h or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 ⁱ Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one ^k that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together; ^l and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 ¶ Behold now || behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his ^m loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 || He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ⁿ ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth ^o food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; ^p the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, [†] he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 || He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

CHAP. XLI.

Of God's great power in the leviathan.

CANST thou draw out || leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord [†] which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou put an ^a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? ^b wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall thy companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, ^c remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who hath prevented me, ^d that I should repay him? ^e whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

CHAP. XLII.

1 Job submitteth himself unto God. 7 God preferring Job's cause, maketh his friends submit themselves, and accepteth him: 10 he magnifieth and blesseth Job. 16 Job's age and death.

THEN Job answered the LORD, and said,
I know that thou canst do every thing, and that || no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 ^a Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things ^b too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: ^c I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I ^d abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 ¶ And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now ^e seven bul-locks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for † him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them:
the LORD also accepted † Job.

10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD † gave Job twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all ^f they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed the ^g latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had ^h fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

13 He had also ⁱ seven sons, and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this ^k lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, ^l being old and full of days.

¶ The Book of PSALMS.

PSALM I.

1 The happiness of the godly. 4 The unhappiness of the ungodly.

BLESSED is the man ^a that walketh not in the counsel of the ^b ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, ^c nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; ^c and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree ^d planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not ^e wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are ^e like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD ^f knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

1 The kingdom of Christ: 10 kings are exhorted to accept it.

WHY ^a do the heathen ^b rage, and the people ^c imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 ^b He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and ^b vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I [†] set my king [†] upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare ^{||} the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, ^c Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

8 ^d Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 ^e Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, ^f O ye kings; be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 ^g Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. ^h Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM III.

The security of God's protection.

¶ A Psalm of David, ^a when he fled from Achish his son.

LORD, ^b how are they increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, ^c There is no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield ^{||} for me; my glory, and ^d the lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

5 ^e I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me.

6 ^f I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast ^g smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 ^h Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience: 2 he reproveth and exhorteth his enemies. 6 Man's happiness is in God's favour.

¶ To the ^{||} chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: ^a thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; ^b have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ^b ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD ^c hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 Stand in awe, ^d and sin not: ^e commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

5 Offer ^f the sacrifices of righteousness, ^g and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? ^h LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 ⁱ I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: ^k for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

1 David prayeth, and professeth his study in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked. 7 David professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him, 10 to destroy his enemies, 11 and to preserve the godly.

¶ To the chief Musician upon Nchiloth, A Psalm of David.

PSALM X.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked: 12 he prayeth for remedy: 16 he professeth his confidence.

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why ^ahidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 [†]The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: ^blet them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his [†]heart's desire, and [†]blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: [†]God is not in all his ^cthoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall [†]never be in adversity.

7 ^dHis mouth is full of cursing and [†]deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and [†]vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes [†]are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait [†]secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 [†]He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by [†]his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: ^ehe hideth his face; he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the [†]humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor [†]committeeth himself unto thee; thou art the ^fhelper of the fatherless.

15 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 ^gThe LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt [†]prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

PSALM XI.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the ^a LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, ^b Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For, lo, the wicked ^c bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may [†] privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the ^d foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 ^e The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.

5 The LORD ^g trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain ^{||} snares, fire and brimstone, and ^{||} an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; ^h his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSALM XII.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God: 3 he comforteth himself with God's judgments on the wicked, and confidence in God's tried promises.

¶ To the chief Musician ^{||} upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

^{||} HELP, LORD; ^a for the godly man ceaseth; ^{||} for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: ^b with flattering lips and with [†] a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh [†] proud things:

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips [†] are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that ^{||} puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words: ^c as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve [†] them from this generation for ever.

8 The wicked walk on every side, when [†] the vilest men are exalted.

PSALM XIII.

1 David complaineth of delay in help: 3 he prayeth for preventing grace: 5 he boasteth of divine mercy.

¶ To the ^{||} chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOW long wilt thou ^a forget me, O LORD? ^{||} for ever? how long wilt thou ^b hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: ^c lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the ^d sleep of death;

4 ^e Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But ^f I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, ^g because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM XIV.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man: 4 he convinceth the wicked by the light of their conscience: 7 he glorieth in the salvation of God.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE ^a fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. ^b They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

2 The LORD ^c looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 They are ^d all gone aside, they are all together become [†] filthy: ^e there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? ^f who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

5 There [†] were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his ^g refuge.

7 [†] Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM XV.

David describeth a citizen of Zion.

¶ A Psalm of David.

LORD, ^a who shall [†] abide in thy tabernacle? ^a who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 ^b He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and ^c speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor ^{||} taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes ^d a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that swareth to his own hurt, ^e and changeth not.

5 ^f He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

PSALM XVI.

1 David in distrust of merits, and hatred of idolatry, fleeth to God for preservation: 5 he sheweth the hope of his calling, of the resurrection, and life everlasting.

¶ Michtam of David.

PRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: ^a my goodness extendeth not to thee;

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the ^b excellent, in whom is all my delight.

PSALM XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

† To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, ^a the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of ^b this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

I Will ^c love thee, O LORD, my strength. 2 The LORD is my rock, and ^d my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, [†] my strength, in whom I ^e will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

4 ^g The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of [†] ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The || sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress, ^h I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: ⁱ he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth ^k shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke [†] out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He ^l bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a ^m cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the ⁿ wings of the wind.

11 He made ^o darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness ^p that was before him ^q his thick clouds passed, hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, ^r and the Highest gave his voice; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out ^s his arrows, and scattered them; ^t and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

Or 47. 4.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the ^aname of the God of Jacob [†]defend thee.

2 Send [†]thee help from the sanctuary, and [†]strengthen thee out of Zion.

3 Remember all thy offerings, and [†]accept thy burnt-sacrifice. Selah.

4 Grant thee according to ^bthine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up ^cour banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the LORD saveth ^dhis anointed; he will hear him [†]from his holy heaven [†]with the saving strength of his right hand.

7 Some ^etrust in chariots, ^eand some in horses: but ^fwe will remember the name of the LORD our God.

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

PSALM XXI.

1 A thanksgiving for victory. 7 Confidence of further success.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; ^aand in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

2 Thou hast given him ^bhis heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: ^cthou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 He asked ^dlife of thee, and thou gavest ^eit him, ^eeven length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory ^fis great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast [†]made him most blessed for ever: thou hast [†]made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

7 For the king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most High he [†]shall not be moved.

8 Thine hand shall find out all ^gthine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as ^ha fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the ⁱfire shall devour them.

10 ^kTheir fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, ^lwhich they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore [†]shalt thou make them turn their [†]back, [†]when thou shalt make ready [†]thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing [†]and praise thy power.

PSALM XXII.

1 David complaineth in great discouragement: 9 he prayeth in great distress: 23 he praiseth God.

¶ To the chief Musician upon [†]Aleleluah, [†]A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far [†]from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and [†]I am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest ^bthe praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: ^cthey trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am a ^dworm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 ^eAll they that see me laugh me to scorn: they [†]shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8 [†]He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, [†]seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou [†]didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is [†]none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 They [†]gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are [†]out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is ^gdried up like a potsherd; and my ^htongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For ⁱdogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: ^kthey pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

18 [†]They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; [†]my darling [†]from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

22 ⁿI will declare thy name unto ⁿmy brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; ^obut when he cried unto him, he heard.

28 For the kingdom is the LORD's: and he is the governor among the nations.

29 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation.

31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSALM XXIII.

David's confidence in God's grace.

¶ A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is ^amy shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, ^bI will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

1 God's lordship in the world. 3 The citizens of his spiritual kingdom. 7 An exhortation to receive him.

¶ A Psalm of David.

THE earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? and who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this King of glory? the LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? the LORD of hosts, ^bhe is the King of glory. Selah.

PSALM XXV.

1 David's confidence in prayer: 7 he prayeth for remission of sins, 16 and for help in affliction.

¶ A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me; for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.

15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.

19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

1 David praiseth God for his deliverance: 4 He exhorteth others to praise him by example of God's dealing with him.

¶ A Psalm and Song, at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

8 And hast not † shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my foot in † a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: † mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my † bones are consumed.

11 I was a † reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my † neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me with- out fled from me.

16 † Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and || let them be silent in the grave.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak † grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 Oh † how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

7 ⁱ Thou art my hiding place; ^j thou shalt preserve me from trouble; ^k thou shalt compass me about with ^k songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: [†] I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 ^l Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have ^m no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 ⁿ Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the LORD, ^o and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

^a REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous: ^b for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ^c ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a ^d new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: ^e the earth is full of the || goodness of the LORD.

6 ^f By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea ^g together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, ^h and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 ⁱ The LORD [†] bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 ^k The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart [†] to all generations.

12 ^l Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD ^m looketh from heaven; he be- holdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he look- eth upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; ⁿ he con- sidereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host; a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a ^o vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver ^{any} by his great strength.

18 ^p Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, ^q and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul ^r waiteth for the LORD: ^s he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall ^t rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, ac- cording as we hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

1 David praiseth God, and exhorteth others thereto by his experience. 8 They are blessed that trust in God: 11 he exhorteth to the fear of God. 15 The privileges of the righteous.

[†] A Psalm of David, when he changed his be- haviour before || Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

I WILL bless the LORD at all times: ^a his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her ^b boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O ^c magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 || They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This ^d poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The ^e angel of the LORD ^f encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O ^g taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hun- ger: ^h but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 ⁱ What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips ^k from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; ^l seek peace, and pursue it.

15 ^m The eyes of the LORD are upon the right- eous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to ⁿ cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, ^o and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is nigh [†] unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth [†] such as be of a con- trite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

19. 36.

20 He keepeth all his bones : ^pnot one of them is broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked : and they that hate the righteous || shall be desolate.

22 The LORD ^aredeemeth the soul of his servants : and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM XXXV.

1 David prayeth for his own safety, and his enemies' confusion : 11 he complaineth of their wrongful dealing : 22 thereby he inciteth God against them.

¶ A Psalm of David.

^aPLEAD my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me : ^bfight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and ^cstand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me : say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 ^dLet them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul : let them be ^eturned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 ^fLet them be as chaff before the wind : and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be [†]dark and slippery : and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For ^gwithout cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him [†]at unawares ; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself : into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD : it ^hshall rejoice in his salvation.

10 All ⁱmy bones shall say, LORD, ^kwho is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him ?

11 [†]False witnesses did rise up ; [†]they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good to the [†]spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth : I || humbled my soul with fasting ; [†]and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

14 I [†]behaved myself [†]as though he had been my friend or brother : I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine [†]adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together : yea, the ^mabjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not ; they did ⁿtear me, and ceased not :

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 LORD, how long wilt thou look on ? rescue my soul from their destructions, [†]my darling from the lions.

18 ^oI will give thee thanks in the great congregation : I will praise thee among [†]much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies [†]wrongfully rejoice over me : neither let them wink with the eye that hate me ^pwithout a cause. p Ps. 25. 3.

20 For they speak not peace : but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

¶ A Psalm of David.

FRET ^anot thyself because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down ^blike the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and [†]verily thou shalt be fed.

4 ^cDelight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 [†]^dCommit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

7 [†]Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: ^efret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 ^fFor evil doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For ^gyet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 ^hBut the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked ^{||}plotteth against the just, and ⁱgnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 ^kThe LORD shall laugh at him: for he seeth that ^lhis day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay [†]such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 ^mA little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD ⁿknoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be ^ofor ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: ^pand in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be [†]as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into ^qsmoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: ^rbut the righteous sheweth mercy and giveth.

22 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ^{||}ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

24 Though he fall, ^she shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, ^unor his seed begging bread.

26 He is [†]ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD ^vloveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: ^xbut the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 The law of his God ^yis in his heart; none of his ^{||}steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD will ^anot leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 ^bWait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like ^{||}a green bay-tree.

36 Yet he ^cpassed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is ^dpeace.

38 ^eBut the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the ^fsalvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength ^gin the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, ^hbecause they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his pitiful case.

¶ A Psalm of David, ^ato bring to remembrance. LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For ^cthine arrows stick fast in me, ^dand thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger; neither is there any [†]rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are ^egone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt, because of my foolishness.

6 I am [†]troubled; ^fI am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a ^gloathsome disease: ^hand there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: ⁱI have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 LORD, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also [†]is gone from me.

4 When I remember these things, ^b I pour out my soul in me : for I had gone with the multitude, ^c I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy-day.

5 ^d Why art thou † cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted in me ? hope thou in God : for I shall yet || praise him || for the help of his countenance.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me ? ^h why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?

¶ A Psalm of David, ^a when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: ^b my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and [†] thirsty land, [†] where no water is;

2 To see ^c thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with [†] marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When I remember thee ^d upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night-watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the ^e shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 ^f They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; every one ^g that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

1 David prayeth for deliverance, complaining of his enemies: [†] he promiseth himself to see such an evident destruction of his enemies, that the righteous shall rejoice at it.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, ^a in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the ^b secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 ^c Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil ^{||} matter: they commune [†] of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities; ^{||} they accomplish [†] a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly [†] shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

9 And all men ^d shall fear, and shall ^e declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous shall be ^f glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

1 David praiseth God for his grace. 4 The blessedness of God's chosen by reason of benefits.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.

PRAISE [†] waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, ^a unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 [†] Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou ^b choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of ^c all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being ^d girded with power:

7 Which stilleth the ^e noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and ^f the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening ^{||} to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and ^{||} waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the ^g river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: ^{||} thou settlest the furrows thereof: [†] thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest [†] the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills [†] rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; ^h they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM LXVI.

1 David exhorteth to praise God, 5 to observe his great works, 8 to bless him for his gracious benefits: 12 he voweth for himself religious service to God: 18 he declareth God's special goodness to himself.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm.

MAKE a joyful noise unto God, [†] all ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name; make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, ^a How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall ^b thine enemies ^{||} [†] submit themselves unto thee.

4 ^c All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Sel. h.

5 ^d Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land: ^e they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

PSALM LXXIII.

1 The prophet prevailing in a temptation, 2 sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked; 13 the wound given thereby, diffidence; 15 the victory over it, knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

[†] ^a A Psalm of Asaph.

TRULY God is good to Israel, even to such as are [†] of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 ^b For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of [†] the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is [†] firm.

5 They are not [†] in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued [†] like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: [†] they have more than heart could wish.

8 They [†] are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak ^a loftily.

9 They set their mouth [†] against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of [†] a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, [†] How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, ^b who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and [†] chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, [†] it was too painful for me;

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I [†] their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in [†] slippery places; thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a [†] dream when one awaketh; so, O LORD, when [†] thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart [†] was grieved, and I was [†] pricked in my reins.

22 So [†] foolish was I, and [†] ignorant: I was as a beast [†] before thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt [†] guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 [†] Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

26 [†] My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the [†] strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that [†] go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to [†] draw near to God: I have put my trust in the LORD God, that I [†] may declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

1 The prophet complaineth of the desolation of the sanctuary: 10 he moveth God to help, in consideration of his power, 18 of his reproachful enemies, of his children, and of his covenant.

[†] [†] Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger [†] smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the [†] rod of [†] thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 [†] Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for [†] signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the [†] carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 [†] They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling-place of thy name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us [†] destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs: [†] there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 Why [†] withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For [†] God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 [†] Thou didst [†] divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the [†] dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 [†] Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood; [†] thou driedst up [†] mighty rivers.

PSALM LXXVIII.

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 9 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David.

¶ ^a Maschil of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O my people, to my law : incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 ^b I will open my mouth in a parable : I will utter dark sayings of old :

3 Which ^c we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their ^d children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 ^e For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, ^f that they should make them known to their children :

6 That ^g the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born ; who should arise and declare them to their children :

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments :

8 And might not be ^h as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation ; a generation [†] that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and [†] carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law ;

11 And ⁱ forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 ^k Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 ^l He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through ; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 ^m In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He ⁿ clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him, by provoking the Most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart, by asking meat for their lust.

19 ^o Yea, they spake against God ; they said, Can God [†] furnish a table in the wilderness ?

20 ^p Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed ; can he give bread also ? can he provide flesh for his people ?

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, ^q and was wroth : so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel ;

22 Because they believed ^r not in God, and trusted not in his salvation :

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, ^t and opened the doors of heaven, 24 ^u And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 ¶ Man did eat angels' food : he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind [†] to blow in the heaven : and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and [†] feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled : ^w for he gave them their own desire ;

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But ^x while their meat was yet in their mouths, 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and [†] smote down the ¶ chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned ^y still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 When he slew them, ^a then they sought him : and they returned and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their Redeemer.

36 Nevertheless, they did ^b flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37 For their heart was ^c not right with him, ^d neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But he, ^e being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not : yea, many a time turned he his anger away, ^f and did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For he remembered that they were but flesh ; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they ¶ provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert !

41 Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them ¶ from the enemy.

43 How he had [†] wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan :

44 ^g And had turned their rivers into blood ; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 ^h He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them ; ⁱ and frogs, which destroyed them.

46 ^k He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 ^l He [†] destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore-trees with ¶ frost.

48 [†] He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to ¶ hot thunderbolts.

¶ To the chief Musician upon ^a Gittith, A Psalm of Asaph.

2 Take a psalm, ^c and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast-day.

4 For this was ^d a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through ^{||} the land of Egypt: ^e where I heard a language that I understood not.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.

PSALM XC.

1 Moses setting forth God's providence, 3 complaineth of human fragility, 7 divine chastisements, 10 and brevity of life: 12 he prayeth for the knowledge and sensible experience of God's good providence.

† ^a A prayer of Moses the man of God.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place [†] in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, ^b Return, ye children of men.

4 ^c For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday ^{||} when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are ^d as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which ^{||} groweth up.

6 In the morning it ^e flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast ^f set our iniquities before thee, our ^g secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are [†] passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years ^{||} as a tale that is told.

10 [†] The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the ^h power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may [†] apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it ⁱ repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy, ^k that we may rejoice, and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let ^l thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

PSALM CII.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint: 12 he taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God. 18 The mercies of God are to be recorded: 23 he sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God.

¶ A prayer || of the afflicted, when he is ^aoverwhelmed, and ^bpoureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry
^ccome unto thee.

2^d Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed || like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass;
so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning ^emy bones cleave to my || skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: ^fI am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day;
and they that are ^gmad against me are ^hsworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, ⁱand mingled my drink with weeping.

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath:
for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow that inclineth:
and I am ^kwithered like grass.

12 But thou, ^lO LORD, shalt endure for ever;
and thy ^mremembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, ⁿand have mercy upon Zion: ^ofor the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones,
^pand favour the dust thereof.

† Heb. They made haste; they forgot. 13 ⁿ They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14 ^o But [†] lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 ^p And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul.

16 ^q They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 ^r The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 ^s And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19 ^t They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus ^u they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They ^x forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

23 ^b Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised [†] the pleasant land; they believed not his word:

25 ^c But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, ^d to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 [†] To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 ^e They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 ^f Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness ^g unto all generations for evermore.

32 ^h They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they ⁱ provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations, ^k concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 ^l But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, ^m they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto ⁿ devils, 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring ^o with their own inventions.

40 Therefore ^p was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

PSALM CVIII.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God: 5 he prayeth for God's assistance according to his promise: 11 his confidence in God's help.

¶ A Song or Psalm of David.

O God, ^amy heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

^bAwake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

³I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

^cFor thy ^emercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the ^{||} clouds.

⁵Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

^dThat thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

^eGod hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, ^eI will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

^fGilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; ^gJudah is my lawgiver; ⁱWho will bring me into the ^kstrong city? who will lead me into Edom?

^hMoab is my wash-pot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

^kWilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

¹²Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

¹³Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM CIX.

1 David complaining of his slanderous enemies, under the person of Judas, devoteth them: 16 he sheweth their sin. 21 Complaining of his own misery, he prayeth for help: 30 he promiseth thankfulness.

¶ To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOLD ^anot thy peace, O God of my praise; [†]For the mouth of the wicked and the [†]mouth of the deceitful [†]are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

³They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me ^bwithout a cause.

⁴For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

⁵And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

⁶Set thou a wicked man over him: and let ^{||}Satan stand at his right hand.

⁷When he shall be judged, let him [†]be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

⁸Let his days be few; and ^elet another take his ^{||}office.

⁹Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

¹⁰Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

¹¹Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.

¹²Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

¹³Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their ^gname be blotted out.

¹⁴Let the iniquity of his ^hfather be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

¹⁵Let them be before the LORD continually, that he ^kmay cut off the memory of them from the earth.

¹⁶Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the ^lbroken in heart.

¹⁷As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

¹⁸As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come [†]into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

¹⁹Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

²⁰Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them ^mthat speak evil against my soul.

²¹But do thou for me, O God the LORD, for thy name's sake; because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

²²For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

²³I am gone like the ⁿshadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

²⁴My knees are ^oweak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

²⁵I became also a ^preproach unto them: when they looked upon me ^qthey shook their heads.

²⁶Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

²⁷That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

²⁸Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but ^ulet thy servant rejoice.

²⁹Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

³⁰I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

³¹For he shall ^vstand at the right hand of the poor, to save him [†]from those that condemn his soul.

¶ The PROVERBS.

CHAP. I.

1 The use of the proverbs. 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word: 10 to avoid the enticings of sinners. 20 Wisdom complaineth of her contempt: 24 she threateneth her con-temners.

THE ^a proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and † equity;

4 To give subtilty to the ^b simple, to the young man knowledge and || discretion.

5 ^c A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and || the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 ¶ ^d The fear of the LORD ^{is} the || beginning of knowledge: ^{but} fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, ^e hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For they ^{shall be} † an ornament of grace unto thy head, ^f and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, ^g consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, ^h let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive ⁱ as the grave;
and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, ^k walk not thou in the way with them; ^l refrain thy foot from their path:

16 ^m For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread † in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their ⁿ own blood; they lurk privily for their ^{own} lives.

19 So ^{are} the ways of every one ^o that is greedy of gain; ^{which} taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶ ^p Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she ut-tereth her words, ^q saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn ye at my reproof: behold, ^r I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words ^s to you.

CHAP. II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, ^a and hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and [†] liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 ^b If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 ^c For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: ^d he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He ^e keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ^{||} When wisdom eateth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, ^f understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, ^g to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 Whose ^h ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

5 ^e Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

f See 2 Thess. 2. 10.
6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: ^f love her, and she shall keep thee.

g Matth. 13. 44.
7 Wisdom is the ^g principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

8 Exalt her, ^h and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

i Chap. 1. 9.
l Or, she shall compass thee with a crown of glory.
9 She shall give to thine head ⁱ an ornament of grace: ^l a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the ^k years of thy life shall be many.

n Chan.
11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; ⁿ and thou shalt have many in right paths.

12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; [†] and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

14 ¶ ^m Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

16 For they sleep not, ⁿ except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 But the path of the just is ^o as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is ^p as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

20 ¶ My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings:

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in ^q the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that find them, ^r and [†] health to all their flesh.

23 ¶ Keep thy heart [†] with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put away from thee [†] a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on; and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and ^l let all thy ways be established.

27 ^s Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

CHAP. V.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom: 3 he sheweth the mischief of whoredom and riot: 15 he exhorteth to contentedness, liberality, and chastity. 22 The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow ^a thine ear to my understanding:

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that ^b thy lips may keep knowledge.

3 ¶ ^c For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her [†] mouth is smoother than oil:

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

5 ^d Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now, therefore, ^e O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way ^f far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

10 Lest strangers be filled with [†] thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the last, ^g when thy flesh and thy bones be consumed.

1 Against suretiship, 6 idleness, 12 and mischiefousness. 16 Seven things hateful to God. 20 The blessings of obedience. 25 The mischiefs of whoredom.

MY son, ^a if thou be surety for thy friend, ^a if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger, 22 [†] When thou goest, it shall lead thee; ^m when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 ⁿ For the commandment is a ^{||} lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 ^o To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery ^{||} of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ^p Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eye-lids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and [†] the adulteress will ^q hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; ^r whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31 But if he be found, ^t he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh [†] understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

22 The LORD possessed me in ^o the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 I ^p was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth ; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 ^q Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth.

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the || fields, nor || the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there : ^r when he set || a compass upon the face of the depth :

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall [†] obtain favour of the LORD.

CHAP. IX.

1 The discipline, and doctrine of wisdom. 13 The custom, and error of folly.

WISDOM hath ^a builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

2 She hath ^b killed [†] her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table:

3 ^c She hath sent forth her maidens: ^d she crieth upon the ^e highest places of the city,

4 ^f Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 Come, ^g eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 ^h Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, ⁱ and he will increase in learning.

10 ^k The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 ^l For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 ^m If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ⁿ ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in ^o the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 ^p Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 Stolen waters are ^q sweet, and bread [†] eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that the ^r dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAP. X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth, are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

^a THE proverbs of Solomon. ^b A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 ^c Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 ^d The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to vanish: but he casteth away ^{||} the substance of the wicked.

4 ^e He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son ^f that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but ^g violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 ^h The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: ⁱ but [†] a prating fool ^{||} shall fall.

9 ^k He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 ^l He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool ^{||} shall fall.

11 ^m The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but ⁿ love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a ^o rod is for the back of him that is void of [†] understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 ^p The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof ^{||} erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, ^q and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 In ^r the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: ^s but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want [†] of wisdom.

22 ^t The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 ^u It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, ^v it shall come upon him: ^w but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, ^x so is the wicked no more: ^y but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 ^b The fear of the LORD [†] prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 ^c The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the ^d expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 ^e The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31^f The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh † frowardness.

CHAP. XI.

A^a † False balance is abomination to the LORD: but † a just weight is his delight.

2^b When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

3^c The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4^d Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall † direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but ^e transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8^f The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An ^g hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 When it goeth well with the righteous, ^h the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the ⁱ city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is † void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 † A tale-bearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14^k Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 He that is surety for a stranger † shall smart for it: and he that hateth † suretiship is sure.

16^l A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches.

17 The merciful man ^m doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to ⁿ him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

21^o Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: ^p but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which † is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is ^q wrath.

24 There is that scattereth, ^r and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25^s † The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 He ^t that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: ^u but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: ^v but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but ^x the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit ^y the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that † winneth souls is wise.

31^z Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAP. XII.

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that ^a hateth reproof is brutish.

2 A good man ^b obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

3^c A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the ^d root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4^e A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

5 The ^f thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6^g The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: ^h but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7ⁱ The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is † of a perverse heart shall be despised.

9^k He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life ^l of his beast: but the ^m tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11ⁿ He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is ^o void of understanding.

12 The wicked desireth ^p the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13^q † The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

14^r A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

16 ° A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil : but the fool rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly : and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly : but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good ; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 P The poor is hated even of his own neighbour ; but † the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour, sinneth : a but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil ? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit : but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches : but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 ° A true witness delivereth souls : but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence : and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 ° The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour : but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 ° He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding : but he that is † hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh : but envy the rottenness of the bones.

31 ° He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker : but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness : a but the righteous hath hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding : but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation : but sin is a reproach † to any people.

35 ° The king's favour is toward a wise servant : but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAP. XV.

A ° Soft answer turneth away wrath : b but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright : ° but the mouth of fools † poureth out foolishness.

3 ° The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 † A wholesome tongue is a tree of life : but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 ° A fool despiseth his father's instruction : but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure : but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge : but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 ° The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD : but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD : ° but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

10 || Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way : and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 ° Hell and destruction are before the LORD : how much more then the hearts of the children of men ?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him : neither will he go unto the wise.

13 ° A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance : ° but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge : but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil : ° but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 ° Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 ° Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 ° A wrathful man stirreth up strife : but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns : but the way of the righteous † is made plain.

20 ° A wise son maketh a glad father : but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 ° Folly is joy to him that is † destitute of wisdom : but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 ° Without counsel purposes are disappointed : but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth : and a ° word spoken † in due season, how good is it !

24 The way of life is ° above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 ° The LORD will destroy the house of the proud : ° but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 ° The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD : but the words of the pure are † pleasant words.

27 He ° that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house ; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer : but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 ° The LORD is far from the wicked : but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart : and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 ° The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth || instruction despiseth his own soul : but he that || heareth reproof † getteth understanding.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and ^m his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 ⁿ How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver?

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 ^o Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 || He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso ^p trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 ^p Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 ^q A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 ^r Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 ^t He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of || an excellent spirit.

28 ^u Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAP. XVIII.

|| THROUGH desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 ^a The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 ^b It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 ^c A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 ^d The words of a tale-bearer are || as wounds, and they go down into the † innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 ^e The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and † is safe.

11 ^f The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 ^g Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that † answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 ^h A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 ⁱ He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is ^k harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 ^l A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 ^m Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 ⁿ Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAP. XIX.

^a BBETTER is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, ^b that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart ^c fretteth against the LORD.

4 ^d Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 ^e A false witness shall not be † unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to † him that giveth gifts.

7 ^f All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth † wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

9 ^g A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less ^h for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 ⁱ The || discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 ^k The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion: but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

13 ^l A foolish son is the calamity of his father: ^m and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and ⁿ a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul ^o shall suffer hunger.

16 ^p He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 ^q He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the LORD; and || that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18 ^r Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare || for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must † do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

21 ^t There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

22 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

28 [†] An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked ^v devoureth iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, ^z and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAP. XX.

^a WINE is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 ^b The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger ^c sinneth against his own soul.

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4 ^d The sluggard will not plough by reason of the ^{||} cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 ^e Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men ^f will proclaim every one his own ^{||} goodness: ^g but a faithful man who can find?

7 The just man walketh in his integrity: ^h his children are blessed after him.

8 ⁱ A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 ^k Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10 [†] Diverse weights, and [†] diverse measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

12 ^m The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.

13 ⁿ Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 ^o Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 ^p Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

18 ^q Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war.

19 ^r He that goeth about as a tale-bearer re-vealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that ^{||} flattereth with his lips.

20 ^t Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his ^{||} lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 ^u Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 ^w Diverse weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and [†] a false balance is not good.

24 ^x Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry.

26 ^y A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is the ^{||} candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28 ^a Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength: and ^b the beauty of old men is the gray head.

30 The blueness of a wound [†] cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAP. XXI.

THE king's ^a heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: ^b he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 ^c Every way of a man is right in his own eyes; but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 ^d To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 ^e [†] An high look, and a proud heart, and ^{||} the ploughing of the wicked, is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

6 ^f The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall [†] destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 ^g It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with [†] a brawling woman in [†] a wide house.

10 ^h The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour [†] findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 ⁱ When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 ^k Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

10 Remove not the old || land-mark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11 For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, || even mine.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

17 Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is || an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait || as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

30 They that tarry long at the wine: they that go to seek mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright:

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like || an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAP. XXIV.

BE not thou ^a envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them:

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through ^c wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A ^d wise man [†] is strong; yea, a man of knowledge [†] increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is ^f too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that ^g deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in ^h the day of adversity, thy strength is [†] small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; ^k doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to ^l every man according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet [†] to thy taste:

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, ^a then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting-place:

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and [†] it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; ^a the || candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with [†] them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly: and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. ^x It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and [†] a good blessing shall come upon them.

15 ^g The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; || it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and || meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casteth † fire-brands, arrows, and death,

19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, ^h Am not I in sport?

20 † Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so ⁱ where there is no || tale-bearer, the strife † ceaseth.

21 ^k As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 ^l The words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they go down into the † innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth || dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 When he † speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 || Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 ^m Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Observations of self-love, 5 of true love, 11 of care to avoid offences, 23 and of the household care.

^a BOAST not thyself of † to-morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 ^b Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is † heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 † Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before || envy?

5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.

6 ^c Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are || deceitful.

7 The full soul † loatheth an honeycomb; but ^d to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend † by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: ^e for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

11 ^f My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 ^g A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

13 ^h Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that blesseth his friend ⁱ with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 ^k A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand which bewrayeth itself.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron; ^l so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 Whoso keepeth the fig-tree ^m shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

20 Hell and destruction ⁿ are † never full; so ^o the eyes of man are never satisfied.

21 ^p As the fining-pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.

22 Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, ^q yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and † look well to thy herds.

24 For † riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure † to every generation?

25 The hay appeareth, ^r and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

27 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for † maintenance for thy maidens.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 General observations of impiety and religious integrity.

THE ^a wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but || by ^b a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain † which leaveth no food.

4 ^b They that forsake the law praise the wicked: ^c but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD understand all things.

6 ^d Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 ^e Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that || is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 ^f He that by usury and † unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 ^g Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise † in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12^h When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is || hidden.

13ⁱ He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that feareth alway: ^k but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As ^l a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; ^m so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17ⁿ A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18^o Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19^p He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings; ^q but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be || innocent.

21^r To have respect of persons is not good: for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 || He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23^s He that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is ^t the companion of a destroyer.

25^w He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26^x He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27^y He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28^z When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Observations of publick government, 15 and of private. 2. Of anger, pride, thievery, cowardice, and corruption.

† HE, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2^a When the righteous are || in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3^b Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but † he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: ^d but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7^e The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men || bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 † The blood-thirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth ^f all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13^g The poor and || the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14^h The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15ⁱ The rod and reproof give wisdom: but ^k a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: ^l but the righteous shall see their fall.

17^m Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people || perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty || in his words? ⁿ there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22^o An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23^p A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD † shall be safe.

26^q Many seek † the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

2^b Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor † have the knowledge of the holy.

4^c Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? ^d who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5^e Every word of God is † pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6^f Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; † deny me them not before I die;

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; ^g feed me with food † convenient for me:

9^h Lest I be full, and † deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 † Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how ⁱ lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

14^k There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, ^l to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, † It is enough:

16^m The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

17ⁿ The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me; yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the † midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 ¶ For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22^o For a servant when he reigneth: and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are † exceeding wise:

25^p The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26^a The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them † by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion ^r which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A † greyhound; an he-goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, ^s lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

1 Lemuel's lesson of chastity and temperance. 6

10 The praise and properties of a good wife.

THE words of king Lemuel, ^a the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, ^b the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

3 Give not thy strength unto women, ^c nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, ^d it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and † pervert the judgment † of any of the afflicted.

6^e Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be † of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all † such as are appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, ^f judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

10 ¶ ^g Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

15 She riseth also ^h while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

16 She considereth a field, and † buyeth it: ⁱ with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

¶ ECCLESIASTES, or the PREACHER.

CHAP. I.

1 The preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain ; 4 because the creatures are restless in their courses ; 9 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten ; 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

THE words of the ^a Preacher, the son of David, king of Jerusalem.

2 ^b Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities ; all is vanity.

3 ^c What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun ?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh ; ^d but the earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and ^e hasteth to his place where he arose.

6 ^e The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north ; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 ^f All the rivers run into the sea ; yet the sea is not full ; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they [†] return again.

8 All things are full of labour ; man cannot utter it : ^g the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 ^h The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be ; and that which is done is that which shall be done : and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, ⁱ this is new ? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things ; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ I ^k the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven : ^l this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man || to be exercised therein.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun ; and, behold, ^m all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 ⁿ That which is crooked cannot be made straight : and [†] that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten ^o more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem : yea, my heart [†] had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 ^p And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly : I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdom is much grief : ^q and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom. 24 Nothing better than joy in our labour ; but that is God's gift.

I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove ^a thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure : and behold, ^b this also is vanity.

2 ^c I said of laughter, It is mad : and of mirth, What doeth it ?

3 ^d I sought in mine heart [†] to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom ; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven [†] all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works ; ^e I builded me houses ; I planted me vineyards :

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in me of all kind of fruits :

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees :

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had [†] servants born in my house ; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me :

8 ^f I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces : I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as [†] musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, ^g and increased more than [†] Heb. happeneth to me, even to me.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

ⁿ This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

CHAP. IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by wilfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the ^a oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the † side of their oppressors, there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 ^b Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

3 ^c Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and † every right work, that † for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 ^d The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 ^e Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour, ^f neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, ^g For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good?

9 ^h This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

10 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

11 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

12 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

13 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

14 Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, † who will no more be admonished.

15 For ⁱ out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

16 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

17 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. ^k Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches. 13 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, ^a than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any ‖ thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words ^b be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; ^c and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 ^d When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: ^e pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 ^f Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before ^g the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: ^h but fear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou seest the ⁱ oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not † at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest ^k regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 ¶ Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; ^l nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: ^m and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to ⁿ their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 ^o As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also ^p is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: ^q and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: ^r † it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun † all the days of his life, which God giveth him: ^s for it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; ^t this is the gift of God.

CHAP. VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use, 3 of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

THERE is ^a an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, ^b so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, ^c yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 || If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, ^d and also that he have no burial; I say, ^e that an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover, he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 || Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the ^f appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 || Better is the sight of the eyes [†] than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: [†] neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 || Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, [†] all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as [‡] a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAP. VII.

1 Remedies against vanity, are a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 23 The difficulty of getting wisdom.

A ^a Good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 || ^b It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 || Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 ^c The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 ^d It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the [†] crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 || Surely, oppression maketh a wise man mad; ^e and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 ^f Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 ^g Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire [†] wisely concerning this.

11 || Wisdom is ^{||} good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a [†] defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for ^h who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14 ⁱ In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath [†] set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: ^k there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 Be not righteous over-much; [†] neither make thyself over-wise: why shouldest thou [†] destroy thyself?

17 Be not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die [†] before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 ^m Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 ⁿ For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also [†] take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 || All this have I proved by wisdom: ^o I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, ^p who can find it out?

25 [†] I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 ^q And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: [†] whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the Preacher, ^{||} counting one by one, to find out the account:

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not:

one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected. 6 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable.

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? ^a a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and [†] the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, ^b and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Be not ^c hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment [†] shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ ^d Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him || when it shall be?

8 There is no man that hath power ^e over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death; and there is no || discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, ^f who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 ^g Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that ^h it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it ⁱ happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said, that this also is vanity.

15 ^k Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is ^l that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, ^m that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it: yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, ⁿ yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAP. IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this [†] I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works are in the hand of God: ^a no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 ^b All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, ^c also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: ^d but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; ^e for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, ^f eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 [†] Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: ^g for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, ^h do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, and saw under the sun, ⁱ that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For man also knoweth ^j not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the the sons of men ^lsnared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me :

14 ^mThere was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it :

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city ; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 ⁿThen said I, Wisdom is better than strength : ^onevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 ^pWisdom is better than weapons of war : but ^qone sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAP. X.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly, 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

† [†]DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour : ^aso doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is ^bat his right hand ; ^cbut a fool's heart is at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, [†]his wisdom faileth him, ^dand he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place ; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth [†]from the ruler :

6 Folly is set [†]in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants ^eupon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 ^fHe that diggeth a pit shall fall into it ; and whoso breaketh an hedge, ^ga serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith ; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength : but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the ^hserpent will bite without enchantment ; and a [†]babbler is no better.

12 ⁱThe words of a wise man's mouth are [†]gracious ; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness : and the end of [†]his talk is mischievous madness.

14 ^kA fool also [†]is full of words : a man cannot tell what shall be ; and ^lwhat shall be after him, who can tell him ?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, ⁿand not for drunkenness !

18 ¶ By much ^oslothfulness the building decayeth ; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 ¶ A feast is made for laughter, and ^pwine [†]maketh merry : but money answereth all things.

20 ¶ ^qCurse not the king, nor not in thy [†]thought ; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber : for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAP. XI.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

CAST thy bread [†]upon the waters : for thou shalt find it after ^amany days.

2 ^bGive a portion to seven, and also to eight ; for thou knowest not what ^cevil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth : and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow ; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is ^dthe way of the spirit, ^enor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child : even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand : for thou knowest not whether [†]shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to [†]behold the sun :

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all ; yet let him remember the days of darkness ; for they shall be many. ^gAll that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth ; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways ^hof thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes : but know thou, ⁱthat for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove [†]sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh : for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAP. XII.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in due time. 8 The preacher's care to edify. 13 The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER now thy Creator ^ain the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, ^bI have no pleasure in them ;

2 ^cWhile the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain :

2 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion: 5 he lamenteth her judgments: 10 he upbraideth their whole service: 16 he exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Bewailing their wickedness, he denounceth God's judgments: 25 he promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

7 In that day shall he [†] swear, saying, I will not be an [†] healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 ^f For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their ^g tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 [†] The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as ^h Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

AND in that day ^a seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, ^b We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only [†] let us be called by thy name, || to take away our reproach.

2 In that day shall the Branch of the LORD be [†] beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely [†] for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written || among the living in Jerusalem:

4 When the LORD shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the spirit of judgment, ^c and by the spirit of burning.

CHAP. V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard, God excuseth his severe judgment : 8 his judgments upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 13 upon impiety, 20 and upon injustice. 26 The executioners of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching ^a his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in † a very fruitful hill :

2 And he || fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also † made a wine-press therein : ^b and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ^c judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard,

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it ? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes ?

5 And now, go to ; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard : ^d I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up ; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be † trodden down :

6 And I will lay it ^e waste : it shall not be pruned, nor digged ; but there shall come up briars and thorns : I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah † his pleasant plant : and he looked for judgment, but behold, † oppression ; for righteousness, but behold, a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join ^f house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth !

9 ¶ In mine ears, said the LORD of hosts, † Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall ^h yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink ; that continue until night, till wine || inflame them !

12 ¶ And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts : ⁱ but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ¶ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge : and † their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

CHAP. VI.

1 Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory, 5 being terrified, is confirmed for his message: 9 he sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.

IN the year that king ^a Uzziah died, ^b I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and ^c his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: ^c each one had six wings; ^d with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And [†] one cried unto another, and said, ^e Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: [†] the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the [†] door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 ¶ Then said I, Woe is me! for I am [†] undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, [†] having a live coal in his hand; which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 And he [†] laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for ^e us? Then said I, [†] Here am I; send me.

9 ¶ And he said, Go, and tell this people, ^h [†] Hear ye [¶] indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, LORD, how long? and he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be [†] utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 ¶ But yet in it shall be a tenth, [¶] and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose [¶] substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: ⁱ so the hoily seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAP. VII.

1 Ahaz being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing, hath for a sign, Christ promised; 17 his judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of ^a Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah king of Judah, ^b that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying,

Syria [†] is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and [¶] Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the ^c conduit of the upper pool in the [¶] highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, [†] neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking fire-brands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, ^d have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and [¶] vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, ^e It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of ^f Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within three-score and five years shall Ephraim be broken, [†] that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. [¶] If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ [†] Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; [¶] ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, ^e O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign; ^h Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and [¶] shall call his name ⁱ Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 For ^k before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, [†] the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 ¶ ^m The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, ⁿ from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall ^o hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria:

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all [¶] bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with ^p a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria; 5 Judah likewise for their infidelity. 9 God's judgments shall be irresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER, the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, ^a and write in it with a man's pen concerning [†] Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I [†] went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz:

4 ^b For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, ^{||} the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria ^c shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 [†] The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth ^d the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in ^e Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, ^f and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and [†] the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

10 Take counsel together, ^g and it shall come to nought; speak the word, ^h and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

11 [†] For the LORD spake thus to me [†] with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, 'A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; ^k but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall ^l stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the ^m testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, ⁿ that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, ^o and I will look for him.

18 Behold, I and the ^p children whom the LORD hath given me are for ^q signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 [†] And when they shall say unto you, ^r Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that ^s peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

20 ^u To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is [†] no light in them.

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly be-stead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and ^w their God, and look upward.

22 And they shall look unto ^x the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, ^y dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

NEVERTHELESS, ^a the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee ^{||} of the nations.

2 ^b The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and ^{||} not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

derful, Counsellor, ^sThe mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

⁷ Of the increase of his government and peace ^h there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The ⁱzeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 ^k The bricks are fallen down, [†] but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and [†] join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel [†] with open mouth. ^m For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 ¶ For the people ⁿ turneth not unto him that smiteth them; neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, ^o in one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 ^p For || the leaders of this people cause them to err; and || they that are led of them are [†] destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is an hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh || folly. ^a For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 ¶ For wickedness ^r burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is ^s the land darkened, and the people shall be as the [†] fuel of the fire; no man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall [†] snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: ^t they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21 ^u Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For ^x all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAP. X.

1 The woe of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of hypocrites, for his pride shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

WOE unto them ^a that decree unrighteous decrees, and || that write grievousness which they have prescribed;

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And what will ye do in ^b the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. ^c For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 ¶ || O [†] Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, || and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I ^d give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and [†] to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 ^e Howbeit, he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 ^f For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not ^g Calno as ^h Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria ⁱ as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did exceed them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the LORD hath performed his whole work ^k upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will [†] punish the fruit [†] of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants || like ^l a valiant man:

14 And [†] my hand hath found as a nest the ^m riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall ⁿ the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? || as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up || itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the LORD, the LORD of hosts, send among his ^o fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn ^p and devour his thorns and his briers in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, [†] both soul and body:

1 The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the root of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and vocation of the Gentiles.

AND there shall come forth ^a a rod out of the stem of ^b Jesse, and a ^c Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 ^d And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;

4 But with righteousness^f shall he judge the poor, and || reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall ^g smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6 ^h The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the || cockatrice's den.

9 ⁱ They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together ⁿ the dispersed of Judah from the four † corners of the earth.

13 ^o The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

2 ^cLift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called ^dmy mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, ^elike as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: ^fthe LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 ^gHowl ye; ^hfor the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come ⁱas a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands ^jbe faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

8 And they shall be afraid: ^kpangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall ^lbe amazed ^mone at another; their faces shall be as ⁿflames.

9 Behold, ^othe day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be ^pdarkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; ^qand I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore ^rI will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the 22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the ^r name, ^s and remnant, ^t and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 I will also make it a possession ^u for the bitter, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 ^v The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his ^w yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath ^x purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year that king ^y Ahaz died was this burden.

29 ^z Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, ^a because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a ^{||} cockatrice, ^b and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the ^d first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and ^{||} none shall be alone in his ^{||} appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That ^c the LORD hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall ^{||} trust in it.

CHAP. XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE ^a burden of Moab. Because in the night ^b Ar of Moab is laid waste, and ^{||} brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;

2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: ^c on all their head shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: ^d on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, [†] weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and ^e Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; ^{||} his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an ^f heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of [†] destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be [†] desolate: for the hay is withered away, ^g the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the ^{||} brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of ^h Moab, the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring [†] more upon Dimon, ⁱ lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 ¶ In that time shall ^d the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people || scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt. 11 The foolishness of their princes. 18 The calling of Egypt to the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD ^b rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will † set the Egyptians ^c against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt † shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will † destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, ^d and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I || give over into the ^e hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 ^f And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the ^g brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, † and be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover, they ^h that work in fine flax, and they that weave || net-works, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the † purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds † for fish.

11 ¶ Surely the princes of ⁱ Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 Where ^k are they? ^k where ^k are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of ⁱ Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even || † they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled † a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the ^m head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be ⁿ like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, ^o which he hath determined against it.

18 ¶ In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak † the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city || of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an ^p altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for ^q a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, ^r and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 ¶ In that day shall there be a ^t highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a ^u blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the ^x work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

1 The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians: 8 he reproveth their human wisdom and worldly joy: 15 he prophesieth Shebna's deprivation, 20 and Eliakim, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE ^a burden of ^b the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, ^c a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound [†] by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, ^d Look away from me; [†] I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a ^e day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by ^f the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And ^g Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir [†] uncovered the shield.

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy ^t government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre: 17 their unhappy return.

THE ^aburden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land ^b of Chittim it is revealed ^c to them.

2 Be [†] still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; ^e and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 ^d As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to ^e Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your ^fjoyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her [†] afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, [†] to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 ^h Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more [†] strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment || against [†] the merchant city, to destroy the || strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, ^k Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, ^l pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for ^m them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 ⁿ Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years [†] shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, ^o and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be ^p holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for [†] durable clothing.

lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly ^demptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, † the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The ^eearth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the ^fcurse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

8 The mirth ^gof tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 ^hThe city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive-tree, ⁱand as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in ^kthe || fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 ¶ From the † uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, † My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt ^lvery treacherously.

17 ^mFear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: ⁿfor the windows from on high are open, ^oand the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 ^pThe earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall ^qreel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall † punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, † as prisoners are gathered in the || pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be || visited.

23 Then the ^rmoon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and || before his ancients gloriously.

† Or, there shall be glory before his ancients.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God for his judgments, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God; ^aI will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; ^bfor thou hast done wonderful things; ^cthy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a city ^dan heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people ^eglorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, ^fa refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in ^gthis mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people ^ha feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will † destroy in this mountain the face of the covering † cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations.

8 He will ⁱswallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will ^jwipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; ^kwe have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, ^lwe will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be || trodden down under him, even as straw is || ^mtrodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall ⁿspread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the ^pfortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 A song inciting to confidence in God, 5 for his judgments, 12 and for his favour to his people.

20 An exhortation to wait on God.

^aIN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; ^bsalvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

8 Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, ^f have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soul have I desired thee in ^g the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 ^h Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

IN that day the LORD with his sore, and great, and strong sword, shall punish ^a leviathan the || piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the ^b dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day ^c sing ye unto her, ^d A vineyard of red wine.

WOE to ^athe crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose ^bglorious beauty is a fading flower, which ^care on the head of the fat valleys of them that are ^d† overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the LORD hath a mighty and strong one, ^ewhich as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 ^fThe crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden ^g† under feet:

4 And the ^hglorious beauty, which ⁱis on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which ^jwhen he that looketh upon it seeth it, while it is yet in his hand he ^k† eateth it up.

5 ^l† In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 ^m† But they also have erred ⁿthrough wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the ^o† priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble ^pin judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ^q† Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand ^r† doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept ^s† must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with ^t† stammering lips and another tongue ^u† will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest where-with ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them ^v† precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; ^w† that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ^x† Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: ^y† for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

16 ^z† Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation ^{aa}† a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away ^{ab}† the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 ^{ac}† And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be ^{ad}† trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only ^{ae}† to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that ^{af}† a man can stretch himself ^{ag}† on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself ^{ah}† in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as ^{ai}† in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as ^{aj}† in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his ^{ak}† strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a ^{al}† consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ^{am}† Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the ploughman plough all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in ^{an}† the principal wheat and the appointed barley, and the ^{ao}† rye in their ^{ap}† place?

26 ^{aq}† For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing-instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Brad corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break ^{ar}† it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it ^{as}† with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, ^{at}† which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy
One of Israel; ^a In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: ^r and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift: therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 ^t One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye

^w blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwell in ^x Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give you the ^y bread

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind turn to the left.

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of † thy

23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise, and the young asses
that ear the ground, shall eat || † clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every † high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover, ^e the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the Lord cometh from far, burning with his anger, || and the burden thereof is † heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And ^f his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of ^g the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a ^h bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the Lord, to the † mighty One of Israel.

30 And the Lord shall cause † his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, ⁱ and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the Lord shall ^k the Assyrian be beaten down, ^l which smote with a rod.

32 And † in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the Lord shall † lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles ^m of shaking will he fight || with it.

33 For ⁿ Tophet is ordained † of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The prophet sheweth the accursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God: 6 he exhorteth to conversion: 8 he sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WOE to them ^a that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in ^b chariots, because they are many; and in hosmen, because they are very strong; ^c but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord!

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not † call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians ^d are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the Lord spoken unto me, ^e Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the || noise of them: so shall the Lord of hosts come down to ^f fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 ^g As birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts defend Jerusalem, defending also he will deliver it: and passing over he will preserve it.

6 ¶ Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have ^h deeply revolted.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The blessings of Christ's kingdom. 9 Desolation is foreshewn. 15 Restoration is promised to succeed.

BEHOLD, a ^aKing shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, ^b and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a † great rock in a weary land.

3 And the ^c eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the † rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak || plainly.

5 The ^d vile person shall be no more called liberal, ^e nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he ^f deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even || when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he || stand.

9 ¶ Rise up, ye women that are ^g at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 † Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ^h ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for † the pleasant fields, for the ⁱ fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people shall come up ^j thorns and briers; || yea, upon all the houses of joy in the ^k joyous city:

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the || forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 ^l Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and ^m the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be ⁿ peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places;

19 When it shall ^p hail, coming down on the forest; || and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth ^q thither the feet of the ^q ox and the ass.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of the church. 13 The privileges of the godly.

WOE to thee that ^a spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, ^b they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; ^c we have waited for thee: ^d be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the ^e time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered ^{like} the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

5 ^f The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of † salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their || valiant ones shall cry without: ^g the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 ^h The highways lie waste, the way-faring man ceaseth: ⁱ he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and || hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

10 ^k Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

11 Ye shall ^l conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath as fire, shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: ^m as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

13 ¶ Hear, ⁿ ye that are far off, what I have done; and ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with ^o everlasting burnings?

15 He that ^p walketh † righteously, and speaketh † uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of || oppressions, that shaketh the hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of † blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions solicited the people to revolt: 22 his words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW^a it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defended cities of Judah, and took them.

2^b And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fullers' field.

3^c Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the ^{||} scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4^{||} And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, ^dWhat confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but [†] vain words) || I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the ^estaff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it; so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: ^fis it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give ^{||} pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, ^gif thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10^h And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12^{||} But Rabshakeh said, ⁱHath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, ^kand cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, ^lLet not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, || [†]Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, ^mand every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, ⁿa land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19^o Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, ^pthat the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21^q But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22^{||} Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah mourning, sendeth to Isaiah to pray for them. 6 Isaiah comforteth them. 8 Sennacherib going to encounter Tirhakah, sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah. 14 Hezekiah's prayer. 21 Isaiah's prophecy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib, and the good of Zion. 36 An angel slayeth the Assyrians. 37 Sennacherib is slain at Nineveh by his own sons.

AND^a it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent ^bEliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto ^cIsaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of ^{||} blasphemy: ^dfor the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 ^e It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is [†] left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria ^f have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will ^{||} send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; ^g and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 ^h And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have ⁱ the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Henah, and Ivah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: ^k and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, ^l that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: ^m thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, ⁿ which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the [†] nations, and their countries, 19 And have [†] cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, ^o but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; ^q The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath ^r shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou ^s reproached and blasphemed; and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the ^t Holy One of Israel.

24 [†] By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, By the multitude of my ^u chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down [†] the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and ^{||} the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the ^{||} besieged places.

26 ^{||} Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were [†] of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy ^{||} abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, ^x and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this ^y shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And [†] the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and [†] they that escape out of mount Zion: the ^a zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, ^b He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will ^c defend this city, to save it for mine own sake, ^d and for my servant David's sake.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Hezekiah having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward for a sign of that promise. 9 His song of thanksgiving.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death.

And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, † Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, ^b Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept † sore.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, ° I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, ^a I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: ° and I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees which is gone down in the † sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in ^f the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off || with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 ^h Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter:

I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; || undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in ^k the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, || for peace I had great bitterness: but † thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 ^l For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: ^m the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 ⁿ For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Hezekiah also had said, ° What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Merodach-baladan sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures.

3 Isaiah understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 ^b And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his || precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his || armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, ^d All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, ° that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

COMFORT ye, ^a comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye † comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her † warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

3 ¶ ^b The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: ^c and the crooked shall be made ‖ straight, and the rough places ‖ plain:

5 ^d And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? ^e All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the ^f word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ¶ ^g O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain: ‖ O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the LORD God will come ‖ with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, ^h his reward is with him, and ‖ his work before him.

11 He shall ⁱ feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those ‖ that are with young.

12 ¶ Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in † a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 ⁱ Who hath directed the spirit of the LORD, or being † his counsellor, hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who † instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of † understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, ^k nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him are as ^l nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye ^m liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 ⁿ The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that † is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; ^o he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image that shall not be moved.

21 ^p Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 ‖ It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that ^q stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the ^r princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 ^t To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: ^u he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, ^v My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 ¶ Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary: ^w there is no searching of his understanding.

29 ^x He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youth shall faint, and be weary; and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall † renew their strength: they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

CHAP. XLI.

1 God expostulateth with his people about his mercies to the church, 10 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up † the righteous man ^b from the east, called him to his foot, ^c gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed † safely: even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, † Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the || goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer || him that smote the anvil, || saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not; ^h for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ⁱ ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and † they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, ^{even} † them that contended with thee: † they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

18 I will open ⁿ rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the vallies: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah-tree, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set in the desert the fir-tree, and the pine, and the box-tree together:

20 ^p That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and † all that is therein: the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: † let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall || prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and † devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; † I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things † straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be turned back, † they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, † but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; † he will magnify the law, and make || it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; † they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for † a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear † for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? † did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath † set him on fire round about, † yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 The LORD comforteth the church with his promises: 8 he appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotency: 14 he foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon, 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people: 22 he reproveth the people as inexcusable.

BUT now thus saith the LORD † that created thee, O Jacob, and he † that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not; for I have † redeemed thee, I † have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 When thou passest † through the waters, I † will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, † thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy || life.

5 Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one † that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 Bring forth the blind people † that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: † who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: † before me there was || no god formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, † am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: † therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, † before the day was, I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall † let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their † nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, † the Creator of Israel, † your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which † maketh a way in the sea, and a † path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth † the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAP. XLIV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 7 The vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol-makers. 21 He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

YET now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob: and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid; have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied; yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

COME down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, ^b sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the mill-stones, ^c and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 ^d Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, ^e and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, ^f The lady of kingdoms.

6 ¶ I was wroth with my people, ^g I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 ¶ And thou saidst, I shall be ^h a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, ⁱ I am, and none else beside me; I ^k shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But these ^l two things shall come to thee in ^m a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection, ⁿ for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 ¶ For thou hast ^o trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath ^p perverted thee; ^q and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know ^r from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to ^s put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee ^t suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with ^u the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the ^v astrologers, the stargazers, ^w the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver ^x themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, ^y even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

8 Yea, thou hearest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor ^g from the womb.

15 I, even I, have spoken, yea, ^m I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord GOD, and his Spirit, ⁿ hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, ^o which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

1 Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, 5 by his obedience in that work, 7 and by his confidence in that assistance. 13 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? ^c Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I ^d dry up the sea, I make the ^e rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

HEARKEN to me, ^b ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Look unto ^c Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: ^d for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall ^e comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert ^f like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 [†] Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: ^g for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a ^h light of the people.

5 ⁱ My righteousness is near; ^j my salvation is gone forth, and mine arm shall judge the people; ^k the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

CHAP. LIII.

1 The prophet complaining of incredulity, excuseth the scandal of the cross, 4 by the benefit of his passion, 10 and the good success thereof.

WHO hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray: we have turned every one to his own way: and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many: for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

CHAP. LIV.

1 The prophet for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the amplitude of their church, 4 their safety, 6 their certain deliverance out of affliction, 11 their fair edification, 15 and their sure preservation.

SING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

CHAP. LV.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 6 and to repentance. 8 The happy success of them that believe.

HO, ^a every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, ^b buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye [†] spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, ^c and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fairness.

3 Incline your ear, ^d and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; ^e and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the ^f sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him ^g for a witness to the people, ^h a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, ⁱ and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; ^k for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and [†] the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for [†] he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For ^m as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 ⁿ So shall my word be, that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 ^o For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall ^p break forth before you into singing, and ^q all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up ^r the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD for ^s a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAP. LVI.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification: 3 he promiseth it shall be general without respect to persons: 9 He inveigheth against blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye ^{||} judgment, and do justice: ^a for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; ^b that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ Neither let the son of the ^c stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in ^d mine house and within my walls a place and a ^e name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off;

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I ^f bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: ^g their burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for ^h mine house shall be called An house of prayer for all people.

8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, [†] beside those that are gathered unto him.

9 ¶ All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen ^k are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; ^{||} sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are [†] greedy dogs which [†] can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; ^l and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

CHAP. LVII.

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3 God reproveth the Jews for their whorish idolatry. 13 He giveth evangelical promises to the penitent.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and [†] ^a merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away ^{||} from the evil to come.

2 He shall ^{||} enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking ^{||} in his uprightness.

13 || When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, i Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, k whose name is Holy; l I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a m contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend n for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on † frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, o and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and p to his mourners.

19 I create the q fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him r that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 s But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 t There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

1 The prophet being sent to reprove hypocrisy, 3 expresseth a counterfeit fast and a true. 8 He declareth what promises are due unto godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRY † aloud, a spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 b Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 || c Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we d afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your || † labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: || ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it e such a fast that I have chosen? f || a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo † the heavy burdens, and to let the † oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not g to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are || cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

8 || h Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD † shall be thy reward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, i and speaking vanity;

10 k And l if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in † drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters † fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee l shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, m The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 || n If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath o a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

CHAP. LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 9 Calamity is for sin. 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOOLD, the LORD's hand is not ^a shortened, that it cannot save; ^b neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins ^{||} have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For ^c your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; ^d your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 ^e None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; ^f they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch ^{||} cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and ^{||} that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 ^g Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 ^h Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and [†] destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no ^{||} judgment in their goings: they have made them ⁱ crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 [†] Therefore is judgment far from us, ^k neither doth justice overtake us: ^l we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 ^m We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon-day as in the night; we are in desolate places, as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and ⁿ mourn sore like doves; we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering ^o from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil ^{||} maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and [†] it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 [†] And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: [†] therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 [†] For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of [†] vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

18 [†] According to their [†] deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they [†] fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in ^{||} like a flood, the spirit of the LORD shall ^{||} lift up a standard against him.

20 [†] And [†] the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, [†] this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAP. LX.

1 The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and the great blessings after a short affliction.

ARISE, ^{||} shine; ^a for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the ^b Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 ^c Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, ^d they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the ^{||} abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee; the ^{||} forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring ^e gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of ^f Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee; they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, ^g and [†] I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers ^m shall build up thy walls, and ⁿ their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates ^o shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the || forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee, shall perish; ^p yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 ^q The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir-tree, the pine-tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; ^r and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall ^s bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The ^t Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, ^u and shalt suck the breast of kings: ^v and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call ^w thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 ^x The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, ^y and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also ^z shall be all righteous: ^{aa} they shall inherit the land for ever, ^{ab} the branch of my planting, ^{ac} the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 ^{ad} A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAP. LXI.

1 The office of Christ. 4 The forwardness, 7 and blessings of the faithful.

THE ^a Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the LORD ^b hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the ^c acceptable year of the LORD, ^d and the day of vengeance of our God; to ^e comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, ^f to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, ^g the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 ¶ And they shall ^h build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And ⁱ strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your ploughmen and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall be named the ^k Priests of the LORD: ^l men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ^m ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ¶ For your shame ye shall have ⁿ double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the LORD love judgment, ^o I hate robbery for burnt-offering: and I will direct their work in truth, ^p and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are ^q the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 ^r I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; ^s for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom ^t decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and ^u praise to spring forth before all the nations.

FOR Zion's sake will I ^a not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the ^b Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: ^c and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a ^d crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 ^e Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called || Hephzi-bah, and thy land || Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5^a Thou meetest him that rejoiceth^d and worketh righteousness, ^e those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: ^f in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, ^g and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do ^h fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7ⁱ And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast [†] consumed us, because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, ^k thou art our father: we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

9 ¶ Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, ^l neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, ^m we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, ⁿ Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, ^o is burned up with fire: and ^p all our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? ^q wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

CHAP. LXV.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The Jews, for their incredulity, idolatry, and hypocrisy, are rejected. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 Judgments on the wicked, and blessings on the godly. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I^a AM sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation ^b that was not called by my name.

2^c I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; ^d that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense [†] upon altars of brick:

4^e Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and ^{||} broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5^f Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my ^{||} nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me: ^g I will not keep silence, but will recompense, ^h even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, ⁱ and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, ^k and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; ^l for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and ^m mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And ⁿ Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the ^o valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 ¶ But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that ^{||} troop, and that furnish the drink-offering unto that ^{||} number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: ^p because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, ^q and shall howl for [†] vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a ^r curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, ^s and call his servants by another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself ^t in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 ¶ For behold, I create ^u new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor [†] come into mind.

18 But be ye glad, and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And ^v I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the ^w voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not ^x filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the ^y sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22^b They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree, are the days of my people; and mine elect [†] shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, ^c nor bring forth for trouble; for ^d they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that ^e before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The ^f wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: ^g and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LXVI.

1 The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity. 5 He comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church. 15 God's severe judgments against the wicked. 19 The Gentiles shall have an holy church, 24 and see the damnation of the wicked.

THUS saith the LORD, ^a The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but ^b to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 ^c He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a ^d lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that ^e burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 ^f I also will choose their ^g delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; ^h because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 ⁱ Hear the word of the LORD, ^j ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to ^k your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 ^l A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD ^m that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not ⁿ cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 ^o That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the ^p abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will ^q extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be ^r borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, ^s so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, ^t and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come ^u with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and ^v by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens ^w behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works ^x and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a ^y sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto ^z the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; ^{aa} and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for ^{ab} an offering unto the LORD out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in ^{ac} litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, ^{ad} to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for ^{ae} priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the ^{af} new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that ^{ag} from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their ^{ah} worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

¶ The Book of the Prophet JEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah. 11 His prophetic visions of an almond-rod, and a seething pot. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance.

THE ^a words of Jeremiah the son of Hilki-ah, of the priests that were in ^b Anathoth in the land of Benjamin :

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, ^c in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end ^d of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, ^e unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I ^f formed thee in the belly, I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb, I ^g sanctified thee, and I ^h ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah, ⁱ Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

7 ¶ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, ^j and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 ^k Be not afraid of their faces: for ^l I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and ^m touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, ⁿ I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to ^o root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¶ Moreover, the ^p word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, ^q I see a rod of an almond-tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, ^r I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is ^s toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the ^t north an evil ^u shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will ^v call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD: and they shall come, ^w and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them ^x touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore ^y gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: ^z be not dismayed at their faces, lest I ^a confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day ^b a defended city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; ^c for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAP. II.

1 God having shewed his former kindness, expositulateth with the Jews their causeless revolt, 9 beyond any example. 14 They are the cause of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah. 31 Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER, the ^a word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and ^b cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember ^c thee, the kindness of thy ^d youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and ^e the first-fruits of his increase: ^f all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^g What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, ^h and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that ⁱ brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that ^j led us ^k through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 ^l And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye ^m defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the ⁿ law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, ^o and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that ^p do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, ^q and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass ^r over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 ^s Hath a nation changed their gods, which ^t are ^u yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, ^v O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 ¶ A wild ass used to the wilderness, that sniffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth; for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 ¶ O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgot me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAP. III.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 6 Judah is worse than Israel. 12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel reprieved and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not: and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet

CHAP. IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments. 19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, † a return unto me, and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 † And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, ° in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the ° nations shall bless themselves in him, ° and in him shall they glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, † Break up your fallow ground, and sow ° not among thorns.

4 † Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem: and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, Gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defended cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: || retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the † north, and a great † destruction.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! ° surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ° Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

15 For a voice declareth ^a from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from ^a a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As keepers of a field ^a are they ^a against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 ^t Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ¶ My ^u bowels, my bowels! I am pained at [†] my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 ^x Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are ^y my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: ^z they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 ^a I beheld the earth, and, lo, ^b it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 I beheld the mountains, ^c and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, ^d there was no man, ^d and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; ^e yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this shall the ^f earth mourn, and ^g the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, ^h though thou rentest thy [†] face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; ⁱ thy lovers will despise thee; they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, ^k that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAP. V.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews, for their perverseness, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

^a RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; ^b and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ^c stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they ^d have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: ^e for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; ^f for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, ^g and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the ^h evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings [†] are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, ^b and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 ⁱ They were as fed horses in the morning: ^k every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 ^l Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; ^m but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD'S.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 ⁿ They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; ^o neither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, ^p behold, I ^p will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a ^q nation upon you ^r from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O ^z foolish people, and without [†] understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the ^a bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, ^b that giveth rain, both the ^c former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us ^d the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ¶ ^e Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 ¶ ¶ A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy ⁱ falsely, and the priests ¶ bear rule by their means; ^k and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAP. VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah, 4 encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins. 9 The prophet lamenteth the judgments of God because of their sins: 18. he proclaimeth God's wrath: 26 he calleth the people to mourn for the judgment of their sins.

O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves ^a to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in ^b Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out ^c of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a ¶ comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; ^d they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 ^e Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up ^f at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and ¶ cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 ^g As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: ^h violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul [†] depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ⁱ ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, ^k the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; ^l I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, ^m and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And ⁿ their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them, every one is given to ^o covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have ^p healed also the [†] hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ^q ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time ^r that I visit them, they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for ^s the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find ^t rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set ^u watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

19 * Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 ^y To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? ^z your burnt-offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the ^a north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; ^b their voice roar-eth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: ^c anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with ^d sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, ^e as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and ^f a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all ^g grievous revolvers, walking with slanders: they are ^h brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 ⁱ ¶ Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

CHAP. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity: 8 he rejecteth their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh: 17 he threateneth them for their idolatry: 21 he rejecteth the sacrifices of the disobedient: 29 he exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the judgments for the same.

^a THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, ^b and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ^c Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 ^d Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly ^e execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, ^f neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land ^g that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 ^h Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, ⁱ and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, [†] which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is ^k this house which is called by my name, become a [†] den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see ^m what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, ⁿ rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I ^o called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to ^p Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore ^q pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: ^r for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 ^s The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the ^{||} queen of heaven, ^t and to pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 ^u Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^x Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 ^y For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [†] concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, ^z Obey my voice, and ^a I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day, I have even ^b sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: ^c they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, ^e nor receiveth || correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ ^f Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away; and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: ^g they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the ^h high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither † came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, the days ⁱ come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor, The valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of slaughter: ^k for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the ^l carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to ^m cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: ⁿ for the land shall be desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews both dead and alive: 4 he upbraideth their foolish and shameless impenitency: 13 he sheweth their grievous judgment, 18 and bewaileth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the LORD, ^a they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, ^b and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, ^c nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And ^d death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Moreover, thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem ^e slid- den back by a perpetual backsliding? ^f they hold fast deceit, ^g they refuse to return.

6 ^h I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow observe the time of their coming; ⁱ but my people know not the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, ^k We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly || in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 ^l ¶ The wise men are ashamed, they are dis- mayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and † what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inhe- rit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to ^m covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have ⁿ healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, ^o Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ^p ashamed when they had com- mitted abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 ¶ I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on ^q the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us ^r water of || gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We ^s looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from ^t Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his ^u strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and † all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cocka- trices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

CHAP. IX.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity: 17 he exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God: 25 he threateneth both Jews and Gentiles.

† O H ^a that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! ^b for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongues like their bow ^c for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 ^d Take ye heed every one of his || neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will || deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: ^e they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse ^f to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, ^g I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh ^h deceit: ⁱ one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but † in heart he layeth || his wait.

9 ¶ ^k Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the || habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are || burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; † both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and ¹ a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah † desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ ^m Who is the wise man, that may understand this? ⁿ and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth, and is burned up like a wilderness that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the || imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, ^o with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will ^p scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: ^q and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them:

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for ^r the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, ^s that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, ^t because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, ^u to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall fall ^x as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^y Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But ^z let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will † punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are † in the ^a utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are ^b uncircumcised in the heart.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ^b A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities ⁱ of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore, thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able [†] to escape; and ^k though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, ^l and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their [†] trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy ^m cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to ⁿ that [†] shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore ^o pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear ^{them} in the time that they cry unto me for their [†] trouble.

15 ^p ¶ What hath my beloved to do in mine house, ^{seeing} she hath wrought lewdness with many, ^q and the holy flesh is passed from thee? ^r When thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive-tree, fair and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, ^r that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of ^{it}, and I know ^{it}: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox ^{that} is brought to the slaughter; ^s and I knew not that they had devised devices against me. ^{saying}, Let us destroy [†] the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that ^t triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, ^u that seek thy life, saying, ^v Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore, thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will [†] punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, ^{even} the year of their visitation.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jeremiah complaining of the wicked's prosperity, by faith seeth their ruin. 5 God admonisheth him of his brethren's treachery against him, 7 and lamenteth his heritage. 14 He promiseth to the penitent a return from captivity.

^a RIGHTEOUS art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: ^{yet} || let me talk with thee of thy judgments: ^b Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? ^{wherefore} are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: [†] they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: ^{thou art} near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, ^c knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart [†] toward thee: pull them out like sheep ^d for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, ^e for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? ^f the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and ^{if} in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, ^{they wearied thee}, then how wilt thou do in ^g the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even ^h thy brethren and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, || they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak [†] fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given [†] the dearly beloved of my soul unto the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it || [†] crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a || speckled bird; the birds round about ^{are} against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, || come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard; they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my [†] pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate, it ⁱ mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, ^k because no man layeth ^{it} to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the ^{one} end of the land even to the other ^{end} of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 ^l They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, ^{but} shall not profit; and || they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

1 In the type of a linen girdle, hidden at Euphrates, God prefigureth the destruction of his people.

12 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine, he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery.

15 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments. 22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go, and get thee ^aa linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 ^bSo I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which ^cis upon thy loins, and arise, go to ^eEuphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, ^das the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, ^eit was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I ^fmar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the ^gimagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; ^hthat they might be unto me for a people, ⁱand for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel. Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

7 ¶ O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, ^g do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 ^h O the Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? ⁱ yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and [†] we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, ^k Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet; therefore the LORD doth not accept them; ^l he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, ^m Pray not for this people for their good.

12 ⁿ When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you [†] assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: ^o I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; ^d Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

him ^b Pashur the son of Melchiah, and ^c Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 ^d Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, ^e and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an out-stretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, ^g I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in the city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; ^h he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ⁱ I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that ^k abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and ^l his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For ^m I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and ⁿ he shall burn it with fire.

11 ¶ And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; ^o ¶ Execute judgment ^p in the morning, and deliver ^q him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am against thee, O ^r inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, ^s Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will ^t punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, ^u and it shall devour all things round about it.

CHAP. XXII.

1 He exhorteth to repentance with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

12 ^a THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, ^b Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD; ^c Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, ^d do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, ^e neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, ^f then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting ^g upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear ^h by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art ⁱ Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall ^j cut down thy choice cedars, ^k and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ^l Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, ^m Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ Weep ⁿ ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: ^o but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more; nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD, touching ^p Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 ^q But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ Woe unto ^r him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and ^s large chambers, and cutteth him out ^t windows; and it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest ^u thyself in cedar? ^v did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, ^w and then it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 ^x But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for ^y violence, to do it.

2 Therefore, thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, ^b I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 ^c And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up ^d shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 ¶ Behold, ^e the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, ^f and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 ^g In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: ^h and this ⁱ is his name whereby he shall be called, † THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, ^j the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But the LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, ^k and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ¶ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; ^l all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is ^m full of adulterers; for because of ⁿ swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their ^o course is evil, and their force ^p is not right.

11 For ^q both prophet and priest are profane; yea, ^r in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their ways shall be unto them ^s as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, ^t even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen ^u † folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem ^v † an horrible thing: ^w they commit adultery, ^x and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^y Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: ^{ab} they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^{ac} * Ye shall have peace: and they say unto every one that walketh after the ^{ad} † imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath stood in the || counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a ^ whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously ^ upon the head of the wicked.

20 The a anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: b in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 c I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they d had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, e then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any f hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. g Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, h as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet i that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the i chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, k I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, || that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, l I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people m to err by their lies, and by their n lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 || And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is o the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? p I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD: I will even r punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say q every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: r for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, s What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, t The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly u forget you, x and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence.

40 And I will bring y an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he fore-sheweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

THE a LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar b king of Babylon had carried away captive c Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, † they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, d What seest thou, Jeremiah? and I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 || Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, e the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge † them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For f I will set mine eyes upon them for good, g and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them h an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be i my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 || And as the evil k figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

9 And I will deliver them † to l be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 ^bFrom the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; ^cbut ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, ^drising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, ^eTurn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And ^fgo not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; ^gthat ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take ^hall the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ⁱmy servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, ^kand make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover, [†]I will take from them the ^lvoice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the mill-stones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass, ^mwhen seventy years are accomplished, that I will [†]punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, I will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, ⁿeven all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For ^omany nations ^pand great kings shall serve themselves of them also: ^qand I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the ^rwine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink and be moved, ^sand be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a ^tdesolation, an astonishment, an hissing, ^uand a curse; as it is this day;

19 ^xPharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all ^ythe mingled people, and all the kings of the land of ^zUz, and all the kings of the land of ^athe Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

21 ^bEdom, and ^cMoab, and the children of ^dAmmon,

22 And all the kings of ^eTyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the ^fisles which are beyond the ^gsea,

23 ^hDedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all ⁱthat are in the utmost corners,

24 And ^jall the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the ^kmingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of ^lElam, and all the kings of the Medes, 26 And all the kings ^mof the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which ⁿare upon the face of the earth: and the king of ^oSheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^pDrink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the ^qcity ^rwhich is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: ^sfor I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall ^troar from on high, and utter his voice ^ufrom

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, ^b the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, ^c and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the [†] common people.

24 Nevertheless ^d the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar: 8 he exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets: 12 the like he doeth to Zedekiah: 19 he foretelleth the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah ^a king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, ^b and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them ^{||} to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 ^c I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my out-stretched arm, and ^d have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, ^e my servant: and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 ^f And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, ^g until the very time of his land come: and then ^h many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore, hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your [†] dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, ⁱ Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy ^k a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ^{||} I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, ^l Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 ^m Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy ⁿ a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy [†] a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, ^o the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 ^p Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, ^q and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make ^r intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 ^{||} For thus saith the LORD of hosts, concerning the ^s pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away ^t captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be ^u carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I ^x visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah wishing it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah ^a king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of ^b Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the ^c yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within [†] two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the [†] captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: ^d for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet ^e Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, ^f Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, ^g to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 ^h The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the ⁱ yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; ^k Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the ^m yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ⁿ I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon: and they shall serve him; ^o and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah;

^p The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught ^q rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon to be quiet there, 8 and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with grace after seventy years: 15 he foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience: 20 he sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet ^a sent from Jerusalem unto the ^b residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that ^c Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the ^{||} eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of ^d Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried ^e away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 ^f Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; ^g that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, ^h and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners that be in the midst of you, ⁱ deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy [†] falsely unto you in my name: ^k I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ For thus saith the LORD, That after ^l seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an ^m [†] expected end.

12 Then shall ye ⁿ call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with ^a all your heart.

14 And ^a I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and ^b I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the ^c sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like ^d vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, ^e and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, ^f to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them.

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which ^g I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ^h ye of the captivity, whom ⁱ I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, ^j which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, ^k I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 ^l And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which ^m are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon ⁿ roasted in the fire;

23 Because they have committed villany in Israel, ^o and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and ^p am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 ¶ Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the ^q Nehelamite, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that ^r are at Jerusalem, and to ^s Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man ^t that is ^u mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, ^v and in the stocks.

27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved

Jeremiah of ^w Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This ^x captivity is long: ^y build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And ^z Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning ^{aa} Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, ^{ab} and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, ^{ac} and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; ^{ad} because he hath taught ^{ae} rebellion against the LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews.

4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He comforteth Jacob: 18 their return shall be gracious. 23 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

^{af} THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, ^{ag} Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^{ah} I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these ^{ai} are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, ^{aj} of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether ^{ak} a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, ^{al} as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 ^{am} Alas! for that day is great, ^{an} so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble, but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, ^{ao} that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and ^{ap} David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore ^{aq} fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed ^{ar} from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I ^{as} am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: ^{at} though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, ^{au} yet will I

12 For thus saith the LORD, ^p Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, [†] that thou mayest be bound up: ^a thou hast no healing medicines.

14 ^r All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of ^s a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; ^t because thy sins were increased.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee ^w shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

19 ^b And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and ^c I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be ^d as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, ^e and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause them to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be ^f my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the ^g whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a [†] continuing whirlwind: it shall ^{||} fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to ^c cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared [†] of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an ^d everlasting love: therefore ^{||} with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy ^e tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall [†] eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, ^{||} that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, ^r Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD; ^s Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them ^h from the north country, ⁱ and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together; a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with ^{||} supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my ^k first-born.

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, [†] He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, ^m as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, ⁿ and ransomed him from the hand of ^{||} him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the ^o height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a ^p watered garden; ^q and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; ^r A voice was heard in ^s Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, ^t because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in ^a thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: ⁷ turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely ^a after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels [†] are troubled for him; ^b I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up way-marks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart ^c toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt ^d thou go about, ^e O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, ^f A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, ^g and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this ^h I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ⁱ I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 ^k In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 ^l But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 Behold, the ^m days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I ⁿ took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, ^o although ^p I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; ^q and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for ^r they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for ^s I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^t which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ^u ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth ^v the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 ^w If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; If ^x heaven above can be measured, and the ^y foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD, ^z from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the ^a measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the ^b brook of Kidron, unto the corner of ^c the horse-gate toward the east, shall be ^d holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Jeremiah being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 buyeth Hanameel's field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer complaineth to God. 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins, 36 and promiseth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD ^e in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in ^f the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, ^g Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall ^h not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely ⁱ be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, ^j and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: ^k though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, ^h Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the ⁱ right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me ^k in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in ^l Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, ^m and weighed him the money, even ⁿ seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I [†] subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto ^o Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of ^p Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the ^q witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^r Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^s Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, ^t thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, ^u and there is nothing ^v too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest ^w loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: The Great, The Mighty God, ^x The LORD of hosts, is his name.

19 Great in counsel, and mighty in [†] work: for thine ^y eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; ^z and hast made thee a name, as at this day;

21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel ^a out of the land of Egypt, with signs and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a ^b land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; ^c but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the ^d mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; ^e and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of ^f the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; ^g for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the ^h God of all flesh: ⁱ is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^j I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come ^k and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, ^l upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me ^m from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me ⁿ as [†] a provocation of mine anger and of my fury, from the day that they built it even unto this day; ^o that I should remove it from before my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, ^p their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the ^q [†] back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they ^r set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of ^s Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to ^t cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto ^u Molech; ^v which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, ^w It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will ^x gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely :

38 And they shall be ²my people, and I will be their God :

39 And I will ^agive them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me [†]for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them :

40 ^bAnd I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away [†]from them, to do them good; ^cbut I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will rejoice over them, to do them good, and I will plant them in this land [†]assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD; ^dLike as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And ^efields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, ^f*It is* desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of ^gBenjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: ^hfor I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XXXIII.

ⁱ God promiseth to the captivity a gracious return, ⁹ a joyful state, ¹² a settled government, ¹⁵ Christ the Branch of righteousness, ¹⁷ a continuance of kingdom and priesthood, ²⁰ and a stability of a blessed seed.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet ^ashut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD ^bthe maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; ^cThe LORD is his name;

3 Call unto me, ^dand I will answer thee, and shew thee great and ^{||}mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the ^emounts, and by the sword;

5 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, ^fbut it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, ^gI will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them ^has at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their inquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 [†]And it shall be to me a name of joy, ^{ka} a praise, and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall ^lfear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, (which ^mye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,)

11 The ⁿvoice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the ^osacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, ^pas at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, ^qshall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 In the cities of ^rthe mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again ^sunder the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 [†]In those days, and at that time, will I cause the ^tBranch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 ^uIn those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, [†]The LORD our righteousness.

17 [†]For thus saith the LORD; [†]David shall never ^vwant a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to ^woffer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 [†]And [†]the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; ^zIf ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 ^aThen may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As the ^b host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, ^c The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? Thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD; ^d If my covenant be not with day and night, and ^e if I have not appointed ^f the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: ^f for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 8 The princes and the people having dismissed their bond-servants, contrary to the covenant of God reassume them. 12 Jeremiah, for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, ^a when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and ^b all the kingdoms of the earth ^c of his dominion, and all the people fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; ^c Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, ^d and he shall burn it with fire:

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be ^e taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and ^f he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with ^f the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn ^g odours for thee; and they will ^h lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: ⁱ for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim ^k liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, ^l go free; that ^m none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the ⁿ covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, ^o and caused the servants and the hand-maids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for hand-maids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; ^p I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond-men, saying,

14 At the end of ^q seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which ^r hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were ^t now turned, ^u and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house ^v which is called by my name:

16 ^w But ye turned and ^x polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his hand-maid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for hand-maids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: ^y behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, ^z to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you ^a to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, ^b when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 ^c The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their ^d dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^e which are gone up from you.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 Jeremiah condemneth the disobedience of the Jews. 18 God blesseth the Rechabites for their obedience.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniyah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaiah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed: for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy, 5 and publickly to read it. 11 The princes having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Jehudi to fetch the roll, and read it. 19 They desire Baruch to hide himself and Jeremiah. 20 The king Jehoiakim being certified thereof, heareth part of it, and burneth the roll. 27 Jeremiah denounceth his judgment. 32 Baruch writeth a new copy.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; so that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neiah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 It may be † they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way : ^m for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the ⁿ fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that ^o they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the ^{||} entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of ^a Gemariah, the son of ^r Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the ^s scribe's chamber : and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. ^t So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, ^u they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, ^x and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, ^y thou and Jeremiah ; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of ^z Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent ^a Jehudi to fetch the ^b roll : and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in ^c the winter-house in ^d the ninth month : and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 ^e Yet they were not afraid, ^f nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless ^g Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll : ^h but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son || of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet : but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, ⁱ after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote ^k at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 28 Take thee ^l again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD : ^m Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah ; ⁿ He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David : and his dead body shall be ^o cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will ^t punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity ; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them ; ^p but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah ^q another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah ; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire : and there were added besides unto them many ^r like words.

of the LORD, which he spake † by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, d Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people : for they had not put him into prison.

5 e Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt, f and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel ; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me ; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 g And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD ; Deceive not † yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us : for they shall not depart.

10 h For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but † wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 ¶ i And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was † broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, † to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah ; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, k It is † false ; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him : so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the l princes were wroth with Jeremiah ; m and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe : for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the † cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days ;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out : and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD ? And Jeremiah said, There is : n for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison ?

19 Where are now your prophets o which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land ?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king : † let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee ; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into p the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the baker's street, q until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah. 7 Ebed-melech, by suit, getteth him some enlargement. 14 Upon secret conference he counselleth the king, by yielding to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he concealeth the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and a Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and b Pashur the son of Malchiah, c heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 d Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence : but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live ; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, e This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, f let this man be put to death : for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them : for this man seeketh not the † welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand : for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, g and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son h of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison : and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire : so Jeremiah sunk in the i mire.

7 ¶ Now when j Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon ; the king then sitting in the k gate of Benjamin ;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon ; and † he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is : l for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men † with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under ^m the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine ⁿ arm-holes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 ^o So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon : ^p and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the || third entry that is in the house of the LORD : and the king said unto Jeremiah, ^q I will ask thee a thing ; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death ? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me ?

16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us ^r this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel ; ^s If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire ; and thou shalt live, and thine house :

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, ^t and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and ^u they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee : so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me :

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to ^x the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, [†] Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee : thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and ^y thy children to the Chaldeans : ^z and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon : and [†] thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, ^a and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death ; also what the king said unto thee :

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented ^b my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return ^c to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him : and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So [†] they left off speaking with him ; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in ^d the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken : and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

IN the ^a ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, I in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, ^b the city was broken up.

3 And ^c all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezar, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, ^d then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls : and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them and ^e overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho : and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to ^f Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he [†] gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes : also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him [†] with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan the || [†] captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields [†] at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah [†] to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, 18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, ^x whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

CHAP. XLII.

1 Johanan desireth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will: 7 Jeremiah assureth him of safety in Judea, 13 and destruction in Egypt. 19 He reproveth their hypocrisy, in requiring of the Lord that which they meant not.

T ^b Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, || Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, ^c and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but ^d a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us ^e the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that ^f whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; ^g I will keep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful ^h witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; ⁱ that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he ^k Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, ^l then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: ^m for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: ⁿ for I am with you, to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will shew ^o mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

land, ^p neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

15 And now, therefore, hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^q If ye wholly ^r set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, ^s that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, [†] shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 [†] So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; ^t they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and ^u none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^x As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: ^y and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

19 ¶ The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have [†] admonished you this day.

20 For [†] ye dissembled in your hearts, ^z when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have ^a not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now therefore know certainly that ye ^b shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 Johanan discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 8 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all ^a the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had ^b sent him to them, even all these words,

2 ^c Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But ^d Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not ^e the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the ^f remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and ^g the king's daughters, and ^h every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to ⁱ Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the ^k brick-kiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^l my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, ^m he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ⁿ such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of ^o the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the [†] images of [†] Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

CHAP. XLIV.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah for their idolatry. 11 He prophesieth their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threateneth them for the same, 29 and for a sign, prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at ^a Migdol, and at ^b Tahpanhes, and at ^c Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a ^d desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went ^e to burn incense, ^f and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit, ^g I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, ^h to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore ⁱ my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now, thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil ^k against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, [†] out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye ^l provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be ^m a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the [†] wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their ⁿ wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, ^o and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not [†] humbled even unto this day, ^p neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ^q I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, ^r and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: ^s and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them ^t that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they [†] have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return ^u but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their ^x wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, ^y in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, ^z we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the [†] queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of [†] victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 ^b But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword, and by the famine.

19 ^c And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her, without our [†] men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, ^d to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, ^e and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a ^f desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant ^g as at this day.

23 ^h Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; ⁱ therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that ^k are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye ^l and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, ^m We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore, hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, ⁿ I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, ^o that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, ^p I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that ^q are in the land of Egypt ^r shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 ^s Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know ^t whose words shall stand, [†] mine, or theirs.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE ^a word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in ^b a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, ^c Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, ^d that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, ^e I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee ^f for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 27 He comforteth Jacob in chastisement.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against ^a the Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah.

3 ^b Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are [†] beaten down, and are [†] fled apace, and look not back: ^c for fear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; ^d they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up ^e like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; [†] the Ethiopians, and [†] the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians that ^f handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is ^g the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: ^h and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into ⁱ Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for ^j thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how ^k Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, ^l and prepare thee; for ^m the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He ⁿ made many to fall, yea, ^o one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, ^p whose name is The LORD, of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O ^q thou daughter, dwelling in Egypt, [†] furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is ^r like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh ^s out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like ^t fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the ^u day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 ^v The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall ^w cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the ^x grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of ^y the north.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the ^z multitude of ^z No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, ^a with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I ^b will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: ^c and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^b waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and [†] all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At ^c the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

4 Because of ^d the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from ^e Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, ^f the remnant of [†] the country of ^g Caphtor.

5 Baldness is come upon ^h Gaza; ⁱ Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley; how long wilt thou cut thyself?

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? [†] put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 [†] How can it be quiet, seeing the ^k LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 The judgment of Moab, 7 for their pride, 11 for their security, 14 for their carnal confidence, 26 and for their contempt of God, and his people. 47 The restoration of Moab.

A GAINST ^a Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto ^b Nebo! for it is spoiled: ^c Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: || Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in ^d Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt || be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall [†] pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying ^e shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; ^f her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Luhith [†] ^g continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like || the ^h heath in the wilderness.

7 ¶ For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his ⁱ priests and his princes together.

8 And ^k the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give ^l wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD || deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ¶ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he ^m hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste [†] remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of ⁿ Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of ^o Beth-el their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, ^p We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and [†] his chosen young men are gone down to the ^q slaughter, saith the King, ^r whose name is The LORD of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, ^s How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 ^t Thou daughter that dost inhabit ^u Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for ^v the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O [†] inhabitant of ^y Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, ^z What is done?

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: ^a howl and cry; tell ye it in ^b Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,

21 And judgment is come upon the ^c plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon ^d Kerioth, and upon ^e Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 ^f The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 ¶ Make ye him ^g drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found ^bamong thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou ^{||}skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, ⁱand dwell in the rock, and be like the dove ^{||}that ^kmaketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the ^l'pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; ^m||his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men ⁿof Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And ^pjoy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of ^qHeshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from ^rZoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old; for the waters also of Nimrim shall be [†]desolate.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth ^sin the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore ^tmine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For ^uevery head shall be bald, and every beard [†]clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab ^xlike a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the [†]back with shame! so shall Moab be a ^yderision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^zhe shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 ||Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the ^a'mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a ^bwoman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: ^dfor I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but ^ea fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the ^f'corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the [†]tumultuous ones.

46 Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken [†]captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 ¶ ^hYet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

39 The restoration of Elam.

||CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth ^{||}their king inherit ^aGad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in ^bRabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be ^cheir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ^dye daughters of Rabbah, ^egird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for ^{||}their king shall go into captivity; and his ^fpriests and his princes together.

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the LORD God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And ^hafterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; ⁱIs wisdom no more in Teman? is ^kcounsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee ye, ^{||}turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terriblest hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are faint-hearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the out-casts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them they shall seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping:

weeping: they shall go, ^sand seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been ^hlost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their [†]resting-place.

7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, ⁱWe offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, ^kthe hope of their fathers.

8 ^lRemove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon ^man assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 ⁿBecause ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown [†]fat ^oas the heifer at grass, and ^{||}bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, ^pbut it shall be wholly desolate: ^qevery one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^rPut yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ^sye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about: ^tshe hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the ^{||}sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ^uthey shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ ^vIsrael is as scattered sheep; ^wthe lions have driven him away: first, the ^xking of Assyria hath devoured him; and last, ^ythis Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, ^bthe iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

21 ¶ Go up against the land ^{||}of Merathaim, ^{||}even against it, and against the inhabitants of ^{||}Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, ^cand of great destruction.

23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder ^dand broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the ^eweapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her [†]from the utmost border, open her store-houses: ^{||}cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her ^fbullocks: let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their ^gvisitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ^hto declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that ⁱbend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape; recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her ^kyoung men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou [†]most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time ^lthat I will visit thee.

32 And [†]the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: ^mand I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 ⁿTheir Redeemer is strong; ^oThe LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her ^pprinces, and upon her ^qwise men.

their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAP. LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

|| Or,

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillars; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art my battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

Before CHRIST

21 And with thee^a will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I^a break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd^a and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea, all their evil^a that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a^a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be[†] desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her^b the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

28 Prepare against her the nations withⁱ the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow; for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a^k desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; ¹ they became as women: they have burned her dwelling-places; ^m her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end, 32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon *is*ⁿ like a threshing floor, || it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath^o devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35[†] The violence done to me and to my || flesh be upon Babylon, shall the[†] inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold,

O O 2

^p I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and ^q I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall || yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, ^r and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down^s like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshlach taken! and how is^t the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42^u The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43^x Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish^y Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, ^z the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45^a My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will[†] do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48^b Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from^c the north, saith the LORD.

49^{||} As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all || the earth.

50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for^d strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, ^e that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53^f Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LII.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken ; 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzar-adan burneth and spoileth the city : 24 he carrieth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin.

ZEDEKIAH was ^a one and twenty years old when he † began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^b Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 ^c And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 ^d For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ ^e And it came to pass in the ^f ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 ^g So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 ^h Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden ; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about :) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ ⁱ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho ; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 ^k Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath ; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 ^l And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes : he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he † put out the eyes of Zedekiah ; and the king of Babylon bound him in || chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in † prison till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, || † captain of the guard, which † served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 ^m And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house ; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire :

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 ⁿ Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 ^o But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vine-dressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also the ^p pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The caldrons also, and the || shovels, and the snuffers, and the || bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 ^q And the basons, and the || fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups ; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath ^k grievously sinned; therefore she [†] is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because ^l they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; ^m she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that ⁿ they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, ^o they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, ^p and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, where-with the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

spread a net for my feet; he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 ^r The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath ^s trodden || the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

16 For these things I weep; ^t mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should [†] relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 ^a Zion spreadeth forth her hands, ^{*} and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 [¶] The LORD is ^y righteous; for I have rebelled against his [†] commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, ^z but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my ^a bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: ^b abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh: ^c there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast || called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 ^d Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and ^e my heart is faint.

CHAP. II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem: 20 he complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, ^a and cast down from heaven unto the earth the ^b beauty of Israel, and remembered not ^c his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath [†] brought them down to the ground: ^d he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: ^e he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devour-eth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew [†] all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was ^f as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ^g taken away his || tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to ^h be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath [†] given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; ⁱ they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: ^k he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [†] destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: ^l her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: ^m the law is no more; her ⁿ prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ^o sit upon the ground, and keep silence: ^p they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is ^q poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings || swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? ^r what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy ^s prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass [†] by clap their hands at thee; they hiss ^t and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call ^u The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have ^w opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth:

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, * O wall of the daughter of Zion, * let tears run down like a river day and night : give thyself no rest ; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, ^b cry out in the night : in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD : lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that ^c faint for hunger in ^d the top of every street.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely ^b against me is he turned ; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made * old ; ^d he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out : he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, ^e he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and ^f as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces : he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the ^g arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a ^g derision to all my people ; and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with [†] bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath || covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace : I forgot [†] prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD :

19 || Remembering mine affliction and my misery, ^h the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is [†] humbled in me.

21 This I [†] recal to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 ¶ ⁱ It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new * every morning : great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my ¹ portion, saith my soul ; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and ^m quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 ⁿ It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone * and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the ^p dust ; if so be there may be hope.

30 ^q He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him : he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off for ever :

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict [†] willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of || the Most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD || approveth not.

37 ¶ Who is he ^r that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not ?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 ^t Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

CHAP. IV.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate: 13 she confesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in ^a the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as ^b earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the || sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, ^c like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The ^d tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: ^e the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the || punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was ^f overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is ^g [†] blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: ^h their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these [†] pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 ⁱ The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their ^k meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 [†] The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath ^m kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 ¶ ⁿ For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, ^o they have polluted themselves with blood, ^p || so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; || it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The || anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: ^q they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 ^r They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; ^s for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The ^t breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, ^u was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ^x Rejoice, and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: ^y thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

¶ The Book of the Prophet EZEKIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar: 4 his vision of four cherubims, 15 of the four wheels, 26 and of the glory of God.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the ^a † captives by the river of Chebar, that ^b the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto † Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; ^c and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire † infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness ^d of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; ^e they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were † straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled ^f like the colour of burnished brass.

8 And they had ^g the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face ^h of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were || stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two ⁱ covered their bodies.

12 And they went every ^k one straight forward: ^l whither the spirit was to go, they went; ^m and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance ⁿ of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ^o ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold, ^p one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ^q The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of ^r a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their || rings were ^s full of eyes round about them four.

19 And ^t when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^u Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit || of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ^v When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit || of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And ^v the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, ^a like the noise of great waters, ^a as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was ^b over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of ^c a sapphire-stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of ^d amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of ^e the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the ^f glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^g I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

AND he said unto me, ^a Son of man, ^b stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^c the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious [†] nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have ^d transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are [†] impudent children and stiff-hearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, ^e whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know ^f that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though [¶] briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ^g be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are [†] most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and ^h eat that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, ⁱ an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, ^k a roll of a book was therein;

10 And he spread it before me: and it was written ^l within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAP. III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourageth him.

15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, ^a Son of man, eat that thou findest; ^b eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I ^c opened my mouth, and he caused me ^d to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I ^e eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for ^f sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people [†] of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people [†] of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. ¶ Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are [†] impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: ^g fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee, receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, ^h Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 ⁱ Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that [†] touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 ^k So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in [†] bitterness, in the [†] heat of my spirit; [†] but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 17 ⁿ Son of man, I have made thee a ° watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; ^p but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, When a ^q righteous man doth turn from his ^r righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; ^r also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ ^s And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into ^t the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I ^u saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

24 ^v Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, ^y they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, ^z that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them [†] a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, ^a I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, ^b Thus saith the Lord GOD; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbear, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

CHAP. IV.

1 Under the type of a siege, is shewed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity.

9 By the provision of the siege, is shewed the hardness of the famine.

^a THOU also, ^a son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the ^b city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set [†] battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee ^{||} an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. ^c This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it, thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity; according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: ^d so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee [†] each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, ^e I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee [†] from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy ^f siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ^{||} fitches; and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be ^g by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by ^h measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their ⁱ defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, ^k my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that ^l which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there ^m abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the ⁿ staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, ^o and consume away for their iniquity.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, ^f neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee ^g that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers ^h shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; ⁱ neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 ¶ ^k A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; ^l and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, ^m and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover, I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a ⁿ reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in ^o furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them ^p the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your ^q staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and ^r evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAP. VI.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 The faithful are exhorted to lament their calamities.

2 Son of man, ^a set thy face toward the ^b mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear ^c the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, ^d and I will destroy your high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your ^{||} images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will [†] lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, ^e and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ ^f Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because ^g I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall ^h loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

3 And he ^dput forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; ^eand the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, ^fand brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^gsaw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward, at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater ^habominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court: and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the ⁱwicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them ^kseventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of ^lincense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, ^mThe LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see ⁿgreater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house ^owhich was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, ^pbetween the porch and the altar, ^qwere about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; ^rand they worshipped the sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? || Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine ^seye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they ^tcry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, ^aCause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man ^bwith his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, [†]which lieth toward the north, and every man [†]a slaughter-weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn [†]by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the ^cman clothed with linen which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and [†]set ^da mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the others he said in [†]mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 ^eSlay [†]utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: ^fbut come not near any man upon whom is the mark: ^gand begin at my sanctuary. ^hThen they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, ⁱthat I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah, Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is [†]full of blood, and the city full of [†]perverseness: for they say, ^kThe LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have ° cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them ^p as a little sanctuary in the countries, where they shall come.

1 The type of Ezekiel's removing, 8 sheweth the captivity of Zedekiah. 17 Ezekiel's trembling sheweth the Jews' desolation. 21 The Jews' presumptuous proverb is reproved. 26 The speediness of the vision.

THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou ^a dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, ^b which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee

¶ stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be ° a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, [†] as they that go forth into captivity.

5 [†] Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee ^d for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I [†] digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ And in the morning ° came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, ^f What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^g This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, ^h I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: [†] they shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And ⁱ the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My ^k net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans, yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

16 But I will leave [†] a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, ^t and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the LORD GOD.

26 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is ^u for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, ^x Thus saith the LORD GOD; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the LORD GOD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their untempered mortar. 17 Of prophetesses and their pillows.

AND ^a the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^b prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto [†] them that prophesy out of their own ^c hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the LORD GOD; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that [†] follow their own spirit, ^{||} and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up into the ^{||} gaps, neither [†] made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

6 ^d They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: ^e and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it, albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus ^f saith the LORD GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the LORD GOD.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ^{||} assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, ^g neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; ^h and ye shall know that I am the LORD GOD.

10 ¶ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, ⁱ Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up ^{||} a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which ^k daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: ^l there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; ^m and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury, to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall ⁿ that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: ^o and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, ^p and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the LORD GOD.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, ^q set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the LORD GOD; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all ^{||} arm-holes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people ^r for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the LORD GOD; Behold, I am against your ^s pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls ^{||} to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your ^t kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; ^u and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; ^x and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, ^{||} [†] by promising him life:

23 Therefore ^y ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

A GAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem; Thy † birth and thy ^b nativity is of the land of Canaan; ^c thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water || to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field; ^d to the loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee || polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 ^e I have † caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to † excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and ^f I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and ^g thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy † blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badger's skin, and I girded thee about ^h with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put ⁱ bracelets upon thine hands, and ^k a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put ^l a jewel ^l on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen ^m for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and ⁿ playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, ^o and deckedst thy high places with diverse colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images † of men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 ^p My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for † a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover, ^q thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them † to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered ^r the days of thy youth, when thou wast ^s naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God;)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an ^t eminent place, ^u and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place ^v at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with ^w the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the ^x daughters of the ^y Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the ^z Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto ^a Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 ¶ In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, 11 is shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem for for revolting from Babylon to Egypt. 22 God promiseth to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a ^a riddle, and speak a ^b parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, ^c A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had [†] diverse colours, came unto Lebanon, ^d and took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and [†] planted it in ^e a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it ^f as a willow-tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of ^g low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, ^h this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good [†] soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it prosper? ⁱ shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? ^k shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the ^l rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, ^m the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, ⁿ and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath [†] taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, [†] but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he ^o rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. ^p Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 ^q As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of sour grapes. 5 He sheweth how he dealeth with a just father, 10 with a wicked son of a just father, 14 with a just son of a wicked father, 19 with a wicked man repenting, 24 with a just man revolting: 25 He defendeth his justice, 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

12 ^lHath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his [†]blood shall be upon him.

14 || Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, [†]hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, ^mhath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; ⁿhe shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall ^odie in his iniquity.

19 || Yet say ye, Why? ^pdoth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. ^qThe son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, ^rhe shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 ^sHave I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 || But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, ^tin them shall he die.

25 || Yet ye say, ^uThe way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 ^wWhen a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, ^xwhen the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he ^yconsidereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, ^zThe way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore ^aI will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God: ^bRepent, and turn || yourselves from all your transgressions; ^cso iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 || Cast away from you ^dall your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a ^dnew heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For ^eI have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn || yourselves, and live ye.

¹ God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel.

5 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, ¹⁰ in the wilderness, ²⁷ and in the promised land. ³³ He promiseth to gather them by the gospel. ⁴⁵ Under the name of a forest, he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain ² of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^b Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou ^{||} ^c judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge ^{them}? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 [¶] And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when I chose Israel, and ^{||} lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself ^d known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I ^{am} the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, ^e to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into ^f a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, ^g which ^{is} the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, ^h Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I ^{am} the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the ¹ abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my name's sake, ^k that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they ^{were}, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 [¶] Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, ¹ and brought them into the wilderness:

11 And I gave them my statutes, and [†] shewed them my judgments, ^m which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my ⁿ sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I ^{am} the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel ^o rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly ^p polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the ^q wilderness, to consume them.

14 ^r But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also ^s I lifted up my hand unto them, in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given ^{them}, flowing with milk and honey, ^t which ^{is} the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: ^u for their heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless, ^x mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness:

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 I ^{am} the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them:

20 And ^y hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I ^{am} the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; ^z they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless, ^a I withdrew mine hand, ^b and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more.

6 ^f Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all ^s hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees [†] shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

8 ¶ Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord; Say, ^h A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? || it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of ⁱ the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: || terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: ^k smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 || Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord God.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine [†] hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers.

15 I have set the || point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is || wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, [†] or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also ^l smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the Lord have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, ^m that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to ⁿ Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the [†] parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his || arrows bright, he consulted with [†] images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint || [†] captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to ^o lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint ^p battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, || to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 ¶ And thou, ^q profane wicked prince of Israel, ^r whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, 26 Thus saith the Lord God; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: ^s exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 [†] I will overturn, overturn, overturn it; and it shall be no more, ^t until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God ^u concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, ^x The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering:

29 Whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, ^y whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 || Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, ^z in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, ^a I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of || brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; ^b thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Lord have spoken it.

MOREOVER, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, ^a wilt thou || judge, wilt thou judge the [†] bloody city? yea, thou shalt [†] shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast ^b shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a ^c reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah, 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth their judgments.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were ^a two women, the daughters of one mother:

a Jer. 3. 7, 8, 10. Or 16. 46.

3 And they committed whoredoms ^b in Egypt; they committed whoredoms ^c in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

hand of her lovers, into the hand of the ^g Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^h discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became [†] famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, [†] she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms [†] more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ⁱ Assyrians, her neighbours, ^k captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 [†] And [†] as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the [†] Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was [†] alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: ^m then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, ⁿ wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, ^o whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, ^p in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 [†] Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^q I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 ^r The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, ^s Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: ^t all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, waggons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears, and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 ^u They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy [†] fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make ^x thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from ^y the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them ^z whom thou hatest, into the hand of them ^a from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, ^b and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, ^c because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her ^d cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large, ^e thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision: it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even ^f drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast forgotten me, ^g and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 [†] The Lord said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou ^h judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, ⁱ and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, ^k whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, [†] and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, ^m thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And, furthermore, that ye have sent for men [†] to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came; for whom thou ⁿ didst wash thyself, paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a [†] stately bed, and a table prepared before it, ^o whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil,

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease [†] was with her: and with the men [†] of the common

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Under the parable of a boiling pot, 6 is shewed the irrevocable destruction of Jerusalem. 15 By the sign of Ezekiel not mourning for the death of his wife, 19 is shewed the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow.

A GAIN, ^a in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying;

2 Son of man, Write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem ^b this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; ^c Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and || burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe ^d to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; ^e let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^f Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

CHAP. XXV.

1 God's vengeance, for their insolence against the Jews, upon the Ammonites, 8 upon Moab and Seir, 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

590.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face ^a against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the LORD GOD; Thus saith the LORD GOD; Because thou saidst, ^b Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the [†] men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make ^c Rabbah a ^d stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the LORD GOD; Because thou hast clapped ^{thine} [†] hands, and stamped with the [†] feet, and rejoiced in [†] heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore ^e I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for ^{||} a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Thus saith the LORD GOD; ^f Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the [†] side of Moab from the cities, from his cities ^{which are} on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

10 Unto ^g the men of the east ^{||} with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may ^h not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 ¶ Thus saith the LORD GOD; Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah [†] by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and ^{||} they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And ⁱ I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the LORD GOD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD GOD; ^k Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy ^{||} for the old hatred;

1 Tyrus for insulting against Jerusalem is threatened. 7 The power of Nebuchadrezzar against her. 15 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

AND it came to pass ^a in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, ^{that} the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that ^b Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, ^c Aha, she is broken ^{that was} the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, ^{now} she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her ^d like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be ^e a place for the spreading of nets in ^e the midst of the sea: for I have spoken ^{it}, saith the LORD GOD: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which ^{are} in the field shall be slain by the sword; ^f and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 ¶ For thus saith the LORD GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, ^g a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and ^{||} cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy ^h walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, [†] as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of ^a Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the † midst of the seas; ^b yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, thou art ^c wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 † By ^d thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, ^e the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 ^f They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, ^g I am God; but thou shalt be a man, and not God, in the hand of him that || slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the ^h uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, ⁱ take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, ^k and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in ^l Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the || sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the || beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the || emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy ^m tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed ⁿ cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the ^o holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the ^p mountain of God: and I will destroy thee; ^q O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 ^r Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: ^s thou shalt be † a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery to Israel. 8 The desolation of Egypt. 13 The restoration thereof after forty years. 17 Egypt the reward of Nebuchadrezzar. 21 Israel shall be restored.

^a IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^b set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^c dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, ^d which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But ^e I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the ^f open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: ^f I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a ^g staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 ^h When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ⁱ I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, ^k The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt [†] utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of [†] Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 [†] No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: ^m and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ¶ Yet thus saith the Lord God; At the ⁿ end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their [†] habitation; and they shall be there a [†] base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be ^o no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the ^p seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^q Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of ^r Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and [†] take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt [†] for his labour wherewith he served against it, ^a because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: ^d from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 ^e And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be [†] destroyed.

9 In that day shall ^f messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; I will also make ^g the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, ^h the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers ⁱ dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and [†] all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; I will also ⁱ destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; ^k and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: ^l and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in ^{||} Zoan, ^m and will execute judgments in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon ^{||} Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And ⁿ I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of ^{||} Aven and of ^{||} Phibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At ^o Tehaphnehes also the day shall be ^{||} darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will ^p I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

20 ^{588.} ¶ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, ^q I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, ^r it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Be-

23 And [†] I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; ^u and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 ^x And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass ^a in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; ^b Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ¶ Behold, ^c the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon [†] with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 ^d The waters ^{||} made him great, the deep ^{||} set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ^{||} little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore ^e his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, ^{||} when he shot forth.

6 All the ^f fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: ^g for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the ^h garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of ⁱ Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, ^k and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; [†] he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness.

2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them. † When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ^awatchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then † whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, ^bhis blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; ^cbut his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ ^dSo thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and ^ewarn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, ^fhe shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 ¶ Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we ^gpine away in them, ^hhow should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ⁱI have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for ^kwhy will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The ^lrighteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live, ^mif he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

CHAP. XXXIV.

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them: 11 His providence for his flock.

20 The kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the ^a shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds;

^b Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 ^c Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 ^d The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye ^e sought that which was lost; but with ^f force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, ^{||} because there is no shepherd: ^g and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became ^h meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds ⁱ fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; ^k and I will require my flock at their hand; and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds ^l feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, ^m and seek them out.

12 [†] As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered ⁿ in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And ^o I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived. 15 By the uniting of two sticks, 18 is shewed the incorporation of Israel with Judah. 21 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

^a THE hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out ^b in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? and I answered, ^c O LORD GOD, thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the LORD GOD unto these bones; Behold, ^d I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the LORD GOD; ^e Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, ^f and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ¶ Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ^h Our bones are dried, ⁱ and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophecy and say unto them, Thus saith the LORD GOD; Behold, ^k O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, ^l and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And ^m shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one ⁿ stick, and write upon it, ^o For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And join them ^p one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ¶ And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, ^q Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

20 ¶ And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand ^s before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

24 And David my servant ^y shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when ^tGog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the LORD GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy and ^uin the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a ^xgreat shaking in the land of Israel;

23 Thus will I ^bmagnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, ^cand they shall know that I am the LORD.

is with thee; I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every [†] sort, and to the beasts of the field [†] to be devoured.

5 [†] Thou shalt fall upon [†] the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell ^{||} carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 [°] So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 [¶] Behold, it is come, ^d and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day ^e whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the ^{||} hand-staves, and the spears, and they shall ^{||} burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: ^f and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 [¶] And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto ^g Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the ^{||} noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it, The valley of ^{||} Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, ^h that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out [†] men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to ⁱ cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he [†] set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of ^k Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be ^{||} Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 [¶] And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord God; Speak [†] unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my ^{||} sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 [†] Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of [†] goats, of bullocks, ^m all of them fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, ⁿ with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory [°] among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 ^p So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.

23 [¶] And the heathen shall know ^q that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore ^r hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the ^s whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have ^t borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and ^u am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 ^x Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, [†] which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 ^y Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have ^z poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

chambers, posts, &c. of the temple.

5 And behold, ⁱ a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand-breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate [†] which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and ^k the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And ^l the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The [†] space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there ^m were [†] narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the || arches: and windows were round about || inward: and upon each post were palm-trees.

17 Then brought he me into the ⁿ outward court, and, lo, ^o there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court || without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court [†] that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the ^p little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the || arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their ^q windows, and their arches, and their palm-trees, were after the measure of the gate ^r that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were ^s windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and ^t it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the ^u little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were ^x windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits [†] broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the ^y little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were ^z windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; ^a and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 ^b The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

the house of Israel^h no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, || and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and ⁱ the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them ^k for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the || pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the ^l form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; ^m Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: ⁿ The cubit is a cubit and an hand-breadth; even the † bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the † edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So † the altar shall be four cubits; and from † the altar and upwards shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God; these are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, [•] and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of ^p the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ^q a young bullock for a sin-offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, and he ^r shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ^s without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and ^t the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the Lord.

25 ^u Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 ^x Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it: and they shall † consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your || peace-offerings; ^y and I will accept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XLIV.

1 The east gate assigned only to the prince. 4 The priests reprov'd for polluting of the sanctuary. 9 Idolaters incapable of the priest's office. 15 The sons of Zadok are accepted therefore. 17 Ordinances for the priests.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary ^a which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the Lord ^b the God of Israel hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to ^c eat bread before the Lord; ^d he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, ^e the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord: and I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said unto me, Son of man, † mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning ^f all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Israel, ^g let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary † strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer ^h my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have ⁱ not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my || charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

10 And the Levites¹ that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge^m at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: ⁿ they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and [†] caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore ^o have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall ^p not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them ^q keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 ¶ But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when^r the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall ^s stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to ^t my table, to minister unto me; and they shall keep my charge.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court,^u they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves [†] with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall ^x put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither^y shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 ^z Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives ^a a widow, nor her that is [†] put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow [†] that had a priest before.

23^b And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And ^c in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no ^d dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, ^e they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto ^f the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, ^g he shall offer his sin-offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I ^h am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every [†] dedicated thing in Israel shall be their's.

30 And the [†] first of all the first-fruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priest shall not eat of any thing that is [†] dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAP. XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, ⁶ for the city, ⁷ and for the prince. ⁹ Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, [†] when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, [†] an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ^a five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the [†] suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: ^b and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 The ^c holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 ^d And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for ^e twenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the ^f city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ¶ ^g And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: ^h and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 Ordinances for the prince in his worship, 9 and for the people. 16 An order for the prince's inheritance. 19 The courts for boiling and baking.

THUS saith the Lord God; The gate of the inner court ^a that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And ^b the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priest shall prepare ^c his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt-offering ^d that the prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath-day, shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 ^e And the meat-offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat-offering for the lambs [†] as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 ^f And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 ¶ But when the people of the land shall ^g come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities ^h the meat-offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily unto the Lord, ⁱ one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he did on the sabbath-day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

14 ¹ And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land : for it is holy unto the LORD.

15 ¶ And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall ^a be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs : and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof ; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And ^o the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the ^p oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward : and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion ; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

19 ^q And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand : ye shall offer the holy oblation four-square, with the possession of the city.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made ^a an image of gold, whose height was a threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, ^b in the province of Babylon.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, † have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said unto them, Is it † true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar † full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the † most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their † coats, their hosen, and their † hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's † commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the † flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his † counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and † they have no hurt: and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the † mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore † I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak † any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut † in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other god that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king † promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

my bed; † I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and ^k was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, ^l and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a ^m watcher and an holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried † aloud, and said thus, ⁿ Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: ^o let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth.

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; ^p and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living ^q may know that the ^r Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now, thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, ^s forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for ^t the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, ^u was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered, and said, My lord, ^x the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 ^y The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 ^z It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 ^a And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be

^b with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall ^c drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass ^d as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, ^e till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, ^f and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots, thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the ^g heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may ^h be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked ⁱ in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spake, and said, ^j Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 ^k While the word was in the king's mouth, there ^l fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 ^m And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: ⁿ and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 ^o And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is ^p an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed ^q as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, ^r What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; ^s and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, ^t and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and 10 At the commendation of the queen, Daniel is brought. 17 He reproveth the king of pride and idolatry, 25 readeth and interpreteth the writing.

30 The monarchy is translated to the Medes.

BELSHAZZAR the king made ^a a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the ^b golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had [†] taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought ^c the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, ^d and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ ^e In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the ^f king's countenance [†] was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the ^{||} [†] joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried [†] aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake and said to the wise men of Babylon, ^g Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men, but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his [†] countenance was changed in him, and his lords were ^h astonished.

10 ¶ ⁱ Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed.

11 ^j There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy ^{||} father, the king, I say, thy father, made ^k master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, ^{||} interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and ^{||} dissolving of [†] doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, [†] which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my ^{||} father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, ^m that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 ⁿ And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst [†] make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now ^o if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy ^{||} rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, ^p the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, ^q all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would, he slew; and whom he would, he kept alive; and whom he would, he set up; and whom he would, he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened ^{||} in pride, he was [†] deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was ^r driven from the sons of men; and ^{||} his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, ^s hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven, ^t and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee; and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, ^u which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and ^v whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

CHAP. VII.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts, 9 of God's kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel ^a [†] had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the || matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, ^b the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four ^c great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was ^d like a lion, and had eagles' wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, || and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And behold, ^e another beast, a second, like to a bear, and || it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also ^f four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, ^g a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ^h ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, ⁱ there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I beheld till the ^k thrones were cast down, and the ^l Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his ^m wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: ⁿ thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the ^o books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the ^p great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, ^q and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet [†] their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, ^r one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 ^s And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him; his dominion is ^t an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my [†] body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 ^u These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the [†] Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse [†] from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; ^x even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, ^y and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the ^z Ancient of days came, ^a and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be ^b the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And ^c the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against the Most High, ^d and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand ^e until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take

CHAP. IX.

1 Daniel considering the time of the captivity, 3 maketh confession of sins, 16 and prayeth for for the restoration of Jerusalem. 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy weeks.

IN the first year of ^a Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, || which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to ^b Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ ^c And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O ^d Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 ^e We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 ^f Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness || belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, ^g to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God ^h belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 ⁱ Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the ^k law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As ^l it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet ^m made we not our prayer before the LORD our God; that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD ⁿ watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O LORD our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast ^o gotten thee ^p renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O LORD, ^q according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins and for the iniquities of our fathers, ^r Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, ^s and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is ^t desolate, for the LORD's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city ^u which is called by thy name: for we do not ^v present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, ^w for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles ^x I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, ^y and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God ^z for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man ^{aa} Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly ^{ab} swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth ^{ac} to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the ^{ad} commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art ^{ae} greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, || to finish the transgression, and || to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and ^{af} prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the ^{ag} street shall be built again, and the ^{ah} wall, even in ^{ai} troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, || but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war || desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and || for the overspreading of ^{aj} abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come [†] after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also [†] the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take [†] the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither [†] his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, ⁿ and not be found.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall ^a overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' [†] hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper; for yet the end [†] shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land ^u with great riches; ^z and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, ^y and come toward the south; but it shall not be ^z as the former, or as the latter.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that || maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he || corrupt by flatteries: ^c but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try || them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: ^e because it is yet for a time appointed.

CHAP. I.

1 Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, taketh Gomer, 4 and hath by her Jezreel, 6 Lo-ruhamah, 8 and Lo-ammi. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, ^a in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, ^b Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: ^c for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, ^d and I will † avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, ^e that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name || Lo-ruhamah: for I † will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; || but I will utterly take them away.

7 ^f But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for ^a she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her ^b whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children: for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 ^d For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my ^e drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and ^f make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: ^g then shall she say, I will go and return to my ^h first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and ⁱ wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, || which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will || recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her ^j lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will ^k destroy her vines and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, ^l These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, ^m and she decked herself with her ear-rings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak || comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and ⁿ the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of ^o her youth, and as in the day when she came ^p up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me || Ishi; and shalt call me no more || Baali.

17 ^q For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a ^r covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: ^s and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving kindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, ^t I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear ^u Jezreel.

23 And I will ^v sow her unto me in the earth; ^w and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I ^x will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAP. III.

1 By the expiation of an adulteress, 4 is shewed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

THEN said the LORD unto me, ^y Go yet, ^z love a woman beloved of ^a her ^b friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of ^c wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen ^d pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an ^e half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt ^f abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days ^g without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without ^h an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a ^a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and [†] blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore ^c shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive ^d with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will [†] destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are [†] destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 ^e As they were increased, so they sinned against me: ^f therefore will I change their glory into shame.

14 ¶ I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that ^m doth not understand shall [†] fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye ⁿ unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to ^o Beth-aven, ^p nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel ^q slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink [†] is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her [†] rulers with shame do love. Give ye.

CHAP. V.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, 15 until they repent.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been ^b a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are ^c profound to make slaughter, [†] though I have been [†] a rebuker of them all.

3 ^d I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 [†] They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And ^e the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them:

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; ^f but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall ^g a month devour them with their portions.

8 ^h Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at ⁱ Beth-aven, ^k after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that ^l remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because ^m he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as [†] rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent [†] to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place [†] till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: ⁿ in their affliction they will seek me early.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD:
a for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: b in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: c his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us d as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ e O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee?
O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your || goodness is f as the morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: || and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired g mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they || like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is || polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way † by consent: for they commit || lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim,
Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, h he hath set an harvest for thee, i when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAP. VII.

1 A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against the people for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have a healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the † wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers † spoileth without.

2 And they † consider not in their hearts that b I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; c they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, || who ceaseth || from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick || with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have || made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burn-eth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; d all their kings are fallen:
there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, e he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, grey hairs are † here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the f pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ Ephraim also is g like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, h I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; i I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: † destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though k I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me l with their heart, when they howled upon their beds:
they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I || have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, m but not to the Most High:
they are n like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the o rage of their tongue:
this shall be their derision in p the land of Egypt.

CHAP. VIII.

1, 12 Destruction is threatened for their impiety,
5 and idolatry.

SET the trumpet to † thy mouth. He shall come b as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, c we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me:
they have made princes, and I knew it not: d of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: e how long will it be ere they attain to innocence?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have f sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no || stalk: the bud shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles g as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, h a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired † lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall || sorrow a little for the burden of i the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many k altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

CHAP. IX.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: ^afor thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a ^breward || upon every corn-floor.

2 The floor and the || wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the ^cLORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat ^dunclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them ^eas the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread ^ffor their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of [†]destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: || [†]the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: ^gthe prophet is a fool, the [†]spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred || in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ^hGibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, ⁱhe will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to ^kBaal-peor, and separated themselves unto ¹that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, ^myet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw ⁿTyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: ^obut Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

CHAP. X.

Israel is reprov'd and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

ISRAEL is || an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly [†]images.

2 || Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall [†]break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as ^ahemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and || the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to ^bking Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, ^cher king is cut off as the foam upon [†]the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; ^dand they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from ^ethe days of Gibeah: there they stood: ^fthe battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them: and the people shall be gathered against them || when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her [†]fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plough, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ^gbreak up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

CHAP. XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: 5 Their judgment. 8 God's mercy toward them.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and ^a called my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: ^b they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, ^c taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that [†] take off the yoke on their jaws, ^d and I laid meat unto them.

5 [†] He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused ^e to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: ^f though they called them to the Most High, [†] none at all would exalt him.

8 [†] How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as ^g Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, ^h my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, ⁱ and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and ^k as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 ¹ Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful [†] with the saints.

CHAP. XII.

1 A reproof of Ephraim, Judah and Jacob. 3 By former favours he exhorteth to repentance. 7 Ephraim's sins provoke God.

EPHRAIM feedeth on ^a wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, ^b and oil is carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also ^c a controversy with Judah, and will [†] punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 [†] He took his brother ^d by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he [†] had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in ^f Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his ^g memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 [†] He is ^{||} a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ^{||} oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: ^{||} in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me [†] that were sin.

9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feasts.
